N-565, Application For Replacement Naturalization/Citizenship Document				The Application for Replacement Naturalization/Citizenship Document (N-565) is used to apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for a replacement of a Certificate of Naturalization, Certificate of Citizenship, Declaration of Intention, or Repatriation Certificate. You can also use this application to apply for a special certificate of naturalization to have a foreign country recognize you as a U.S. citizen. Learn more about applying for a replacement document		https://www.uscis.gov/n-565
Before You Start Your Application	Eligibility			Your eligibility to apply for a replacement document depends on the reason for your request. You may apply for a replacement if you were issued a Certificate of Naturalization, Certificate of Citizenship, Declaration of Intention, or Repatriation Certificate, and at least one of the following applies: • The document was lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated • The document is incorrect due to a typographical or clerical error by USCIS • Your name was changed by marriage, divorce, annulment, or court order, and you seek a document in your new name • You obtained a court order, a government-issued document, or a letter from a licensed health care professional recognizing that your gender is different from the gender listed on your current document, and you seek a document reflecting the recognized gender. In addition, you may apply for a replacement of your Certificate of Citizenship if you obtained a court order or a document issued by the U.S. government or the government of any U.S. state that changes your date of birth, and you seek a document with the new date of birth. You may also file this application if you are a naturalized citizen seeking a special certificate of naturalization for the purpose of a foreign country recognizing you as a U.S. citizen. USCIS cannot make any changes to an incorrect date of birth or name on a Certificate of Naturalization if you provided an incorrect date or name on your Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, and then later swore to the facts of your application by signing Part 16. Signature at Interview. We can only change the name on your Certificate of Naturalization if you changed your name after you naturalized.	Your eligibility to apply for a replacement document depends on the reason for your request. You may apply for a replacement if you were issued a Certificate of Naturalization, Certificate of Citizenship, Declaration of Intention, or Repatriation Certificate, and at least one of the following applies: • The document was lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated; • The document is incorrect due to a typographical or clerical error by USCIS; • Your name was changed by marriage, divorce, annulment, or court order, and you seek a document in your new name; or • You have a different gender than what is listed on your current document, and you seek a document reflecting the different gender. In addition, you may apply for a replacement of your Certificate of Citizenship if you obtained a court order or a document issued by the U.S. Government or the government of any U.S. state that changes your date of birth, and you seek a document with the new date of birth. You may also file this application if you are a naturalized citizen seeking a special certificate of naturalization for the purpose of a foreign country recognizing you as a U.S. citizen. USCIS cannot make any changes to an incorrect date of birth or name on a Certificate of Naturalization if you provided an incorrect date or name on your Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, and then later swore to the facts of your application by signing Part 16. 	Fee			We will automatically calculate the cost for you before you submit your application. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055. Fee waiver: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you cannot file online. You must file a paper version of both the Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver and the form for the specific benefit you are requesting. You can review the fee waiver guidance at www.uscis.gov/feewaiver. Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. 	Documents you may need			Before starting the Application for Replacement Naturalization/Citizenship Document (N-565), you may want to gather the documents you will need to support your application. These include your original document, if you still have it, and a recent color photograph of yourself. The other documents you need will depend on the information you provide in the application, such as the reason you are requesting the replacement document. We will automatically determine which documents you should provide us as you fill out your application. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed.
		Biometric services appointment			Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment. At your biometrics appointment, you must sign an oath reaffirming that: • You provided or authorized all information in the application; • You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and • All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.
		Disability Accommodations/Modifications			To request a disability accommodation/modification, follow the instructions on your appointment notice or on the Disability Accommodations for the Public page.		www.uscis.gov/accommodationsinfo
After You Submit Your Application	Track your case online Mail in your original document			After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS. USCIS may require you to mail your original document. This is required if you are applying for a new document for one of the reasons below. • Current document is mutilated • Current document has a typographical/clerical error caused by USCIS • Name changed • Date of birth changed • Gender changed You should include your A-Number with your original document. Mail your original document to: USCIS Nebraska Service Center 850 S. Street Lincoln, NE 68508 If the document was lost in the mail, please submit an online case service request for non-delivery of document prior to submitting Form N-565.
	Respond to requests for information			If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.				Next

	Your signature	Your certification and signature	(If "Your statement" is complete)	(delete)	9		Applicant's certification and signature		Copies of any documents I have submitted are exact photocopies of unaltered, original documents, and I understand that USCIS may require that I submit original documents to USCIS at a later date. Furthermore, I authorize the release of any information from any of my records that USCIS may need to determine my eligibility for the immigration benefit that I seek. I furthermore authorize release of information contained in this application, in supporting documents, and in my USCIS records, to other entities and persons where necessary for the administration and enforcement of U.S. immigration laws. I understand that USCIS will require me to appear for an appointment to take my biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) and, at that time, I will be required to sign an oath reaffirming that: 1. I reviewed and provided or authorized all of the information in my application; 2. I understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, my application; and 3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing. By my signature, I certify, under penalty of perjury, that I provided or authorized all of the information in my application, I understand all of the information contained in, and submitted with, my application, and that all of this information is complete, true and correct.	I certify, under penalty of perjury, that I provided or authorized all of the information contained in and submitted with my application, I read and understand or, if interpreted to me in a language in which I am fluent by the interpreter listed in the Getting Started section, understood, all of the responses and information contained in, and submitted with, my application, and that all of the responses and information are complete, true, and correct. Furthermore, I authorize the release of any information from any and all of my records that USCIS may need to determine my eligibility for an immigration request and to other entities and persons where necessary for the administration and enforcement of U.S. immigration law.			You must read and agree to the certification below. If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your application, we can deny your application and may deny any other immigration benefit. You may also face criminal prosecution and penalties provided by the law.

	Pay and submit		(If "Your signature" is complete)				Pay for and submit your application						The final step to submit your Form N-565, Application for Replacement Naturalization/Citizenship Document, is to pay the required fee. Your application fee is: $[xxx]. Refund policy: By continuing this transaction, you agree that you are paying for a government service and that the filing fee, biometric services fee and all related financial transactions are final and not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on an application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts. We will send you to Pay.gov — our safe, secure payment website — to pay your fees and submit your form online. Here are the steps in the payment and submission process: 1. Provide your billing information on Pay.gov 2. Provide your credit card or U.S. bank account information 3. Submit your payment When you have paid your fee, your application will be submitted. Pay.gov will redirect you to a uscis.gov confirmation screen, which will include your receipt number. Please keep a copy of your receipt number for your records. You can track the status of your application through your USCIS online					Pay and submit
