Specific Instructions
Part I - General

Line 3.

- You are required to have an Employer Identification Number (EIN) if you file FAET returns.
Exception: Occasional or one-time filers are not required to obtain an EIN. You may use your Social Security Number (SSN).
- You may obtain an EIN from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) using Form SS-4. You may obtain a Form SS-4 by contacting any IRS office.

Line 5. If you pay tax by Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT), contact the FAET Unit at the NRC for specific information.

Line 6. See General Instruction D.

Part II - Calculation of Taxes on Sales or Uses During This Tax Period

General

- Entries you make on the lines in Part II are limited to the sales and uses occurring during the tax period specified in Line 6.
- You can use Schedule B for tax on sales or uses that occurred in a previous tax period if you did not include them on the return for that period.
- You can use Schedule C to show tax decreases for sales or uses reported as taxable in this or previous tax returns that are resold for certain tax-free purposes or determined later to qualify as tax-free.

Taxable Articles, Column (b). Enter the sales price of any portable weapons such as rifles, carbines, machine guns, shotguns, or fowling pieces, from which a shot, bullet, or other projectile may be discharged by an explosive.

Line 7.

- Enter the dollar amount of your total sales of taxable articles, including tax-exempt or tax-free sales during the tax period stated in Line 6.
- Do not include articles if you are not the manufacturer, producer or importer for purposes of this tax.
- Except for leases and certain installment sales, you must include all sales regardless of whether your customers paid you.
- The sales price is usually stated on the customer's invoices. You should also include the dollar value of things other than money given as consideration for the article. This includes services, personal property, and articles traded in.
- Do not include the sales price of a non-taxable article unless you sold it as a unit with the taxable article.

- When you sell a taxable article as a unit with a non-taxable article (for example, a pistol and holster) or with extra parts or accessories, then enter the sales price of the unit. If a taxable sale, you should adjust the unit's sales price on Line 10 to exclude the non-taxable article, part or accessory.

Line 8. You must enter the sales price of all articles included in Line 7 that you sold tax-free or tax-exempt. Please use the following chart to determine whether your entry is tax-free or tax-exempt.

Tax-Free Sales	Tax-Exempt Sales
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If you are selling articles tax-free, you and your customer may need an approved TTB F 5300.28, Application for Registration for Tax-Free Transactions Under 26 U.S.C. 4221.</li> <li>• This registration number must be listed in Line 8.</li> <li>• Please refer to Title 27, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 53.131 for tax-free sales and Section 53.140 for registration requirements.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If you are selling articles tax-exempt, an approved TTB F 5300.28 is not required.</li> <li>• Please refer to Title 27, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 53.62 for tax exemptions.</li> </ul>

Do not include the sales of articles sold taxpaid to customers who later resell or use the articles for tax-free purposes; however, you may take a credit in Schedule C or file a claim for refund on TTB F 5620.8.

You may refer to Industry Circular 93-5 for more information about selling articles tax-free or tax-exempt.

Your failure to follow requirements or to be properly registered may result in additional taxes, penalties and interest.

Line 10.

- You must enter the net amount of adjustments to the sales prices of taxable sales for this tax period from Line 9.
- Eligible adjustments are allowed for certain items only when included in the sales price to your customer. (Please see below chart.)
- Price readjustments in the same tax period in which the sale occurs may also be taken in this line, as an adjustment to the tax in Schedule C, or used in determining the sales price (Line 7).
- Do not use Line 10 to subtract the sales price (including excise tax) that you paid to another manufacturer or importer. If you further manufacture articles on which excise tax was paid by another person, you may take a credit in Schedule C or file a claim for refund on TTB F 5620.8.

Eligible Adjustments

Exclusions (Decreasing Adjustments)	Inclusions (Increasing Adjustments)	Constructive Sale Price (CSP)
You may take decreasing adjustments for the following items when included in the sales price of the article and not as a separate charge: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• This excise tax</li> <li>• Any charges for transportation, delivery, insurance, installation and other expenses actually incurred in connection with the delivery of an article to a purchaser in connection with a bona fide sale</li> <li>• Local advertising charges when certain conditions are met</li> <li>• Extra and identical parts and accessories</li> <li>• Non-taxable articles when sold in combination with a taxable article</li> </ul> Please refer to 27 CFR, Sections 53.61(b), .92, .93, .100, .101 and .102 for further information on exclusions from the sale price.	You may have to increase the sales price of a taxable article from the amount shown on your invoice. When calculating your sales price you must include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Any charge which is required by the manufacturer, producer or importer to be paid as a condition of the sale - which is not an expense falling within one of the allowable exclusions.</li> <li>• Any charges for tools and dies used in production</li> <li>• A charge for a warranty. This depends on whether the warranty is optional or required. (See 27 CFR, Section 53.91(c) for specific information.)</li> <li>• Any charges for coverings, containers and packing</li> <li>• Taxable and nontaxable articles sold as a unit</li> </ul> Please refer to 27 CFR, Section 53.91 for further information on inclusions.	Certain types of sales require increasing or decreasing adjustments (also referred to as a constructive sale price) because the manufacturer, producer or importer is constructing a new taxable price for the taxable article. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use of a CSP will arise where the taxable article is not sold at wholesale.</li> <li>• A manufacturer, producer or importer may elect or will be required to use a CSP so that its taxable sale price for various types of sales are at or near the established wholesale price of the taxable article.</li> <li>• When a manufacturer, producer or importer makes a sale at retail or to retailers, he may elect to base the FAET on either the actual sale price or a CSP, which will be a percentage of the actual sale price to either retailers or at retail.</li> <li>• When a manufacturer, producer or importer makes a sale "not at arms length and at less than fair market value" he is required to use a CSP in lieu of its actual sale price.</li> <li>• There are other circumstances which may require a CSP to be used. See the regulations listed below for these circumstances.</li> </ul> Please refer to 27 CFR, Sections 53.94, .95, .96, .97, .99(c), 104(d)(1) &amp; (e). and .143 for further information on constructive sale price.

---

Line 12. You must pay the tax on your business use of taxable articles that you manufactured or imported. If you regularly sell the articles, you must:

- Compute the tax based on the lowest established wholesale price.
- Enter the sum of the prices for articles used.

Use includes:

- Loans of articles for display.
- Demonstration or familiarization, or
- Further manufacture of an article not subject to any FAET.

Please refer to 27 CFR, Section 53.111-115 for more information.

Part III - Calculation of My Tax Liability for this Tax Period

Line 17. Include all increasing adjustments reflected on Schedule B.

Use Schedule B to report adjustments increasing the amount of tax you owe.

Examples include:

- Errors you made in calculating the tax you owed in a previous tax return period which resulted in an underpayment of your tax.
- Penalties and/or interest you owe on increasing adjustments.

Line 19. The amount you show on this line cannot exceed the amount on Line 18. Any excess must be carried over as a credit on your next tax return in Schedule C, Line 37 or you can file a claim for refund on TTB Form 5620.8.

Use Schedule C to report adjustments decreasing the amount you owe.

Examples include:

- Errors you made in calculating the tax you owed in a previous tax return period that resulted in an overpayment of tax.
- Interest we owe you on decreasing adjustments.

You must fully explain any adjustments you list in Schedules B and C and you may not make adjustments earlier than the period in which they arose. You must explain and submit documentation on any claim for credit that you file as required by 27 CFR, Part 53 and 27 CFR, Part 70, Section 70.123.

Line 21. You must enter the total amount of deposits made on TTB F 5300.27 for the tax return period. This amount should agree with Schedule A, Line 27.

Line 23. If you are unable to apply your overpayment to your next return because you are filing a one-time, occasional or final return, you may file a TTB F 5620.8, Claim with the FAET Unit at the NRC.

Line 41. Form must have an original, authorized signature.
