

Join the ENERGY STAR Network (5900-21):

The screenshot shows a Microsoft Internet Explorer browser window displaying the ENERGY STAR website. The browser's address bar shows the URL: http://www.energystar.gov/index.cfm?c=small\_business.sb\_partner\_info\_form. The website header includes the ENERGY STAR logo, navigation links for 'About ENERGY STAR', 'News Room', and 'FAQs', and a search bar. The main content area features a banner with the text 'BE A LEADER – CHANGE OUR ENVIRONMENT FOR THE BETTER' and a photo of a young girl. Below the banner are navigation tabs for 'PRODUCTS', 'HOME IMPROVEMENT', 'NEW HOMES', 'BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT', and 'PARTNER RESOURCES'. The 'BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT' tab is selected, leading to a page titled 'Join the ENERGY STAR Network'. The page includes a breadcrumb trail: 'Home > Business Improvement > Small Business > Join the ENERGY STAR Network'. A paragraph of text reads: 'Yes, I would like to join the Network of small businesses and congregations working with ENERGY STAR. I believe that greater energy efficiency can increase the financial health of my organization and aid in preserving the environment for future generations. On behalf of my organization, I pledge to buy ENERGY STAR equipment and upgrade the energy efficiency of my facilities whenever financially viable. As part of the Network, I may use the ENERGY STAR promotional mark in accordance with the ENERGY STAR identity guidelines.' Below this text is a note: 'Asterisk (*) indicates a required field.' The form contains two sections: '* TYPE OF ORGANIZATION' with radio buttons for 'Small Business' (selected) and 'Congregation, or other non-profit', and '* CONTACT INFORMATION'. A dropdown menu for 'Type of business' is visible under the 'Small Business' option. The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several open applications, and the system tray with the time 10:21 AM.
