Instructions for Alaska Native Tribes Completing the Application Form for the SUBSISTENCE HALIBUT REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE (SHARC)

Program Information

The Halibut Subsistence Fishery is authorized by Federal regulations at 50 CFR Part 300 and provides for eligible persons to conduct subsistence halibut fishing in Convention waters off Alaska.

Subsistence halibut means halibut caught by a rural resident or a member of an Alaska Native tribe for direct personal or family consumption as food, sharing for personal or family consumption as food, or for customary trade.

Eligible persons are identified as those who are:

1. residents of rural communities with customary and traditional uses of halibut; and
2. members of federally recognized Alaska Native Tribes with customary and traditional uses of halibut.

For purposes of the program,

Rural Resident means, a person domiciled in a rural community who has maintained a domicile in that rural community for 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made and who is not claiming residency in any other state, territory, or country.

Alaska Native Tribe means, for purposes of the subsistence fishery for Pacific halibut in waters in and off Alaska, a federally recognized Alaska Native tribe that has customary and traditional use of halibut (list attached).

Completing the Application
