VA ADVANCE DIRECTIVE:
 DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE AND LIVING WILL

This advance directive form is an official document where you can write down your preferences about your medical care. If some day you become unable to make health care decisions for yourself, this advance directive can help guide the people who will make decisions for you. You can use this form to name specific people to make health care decisions for you and/or to describe your preferences about how you want to be treated. When you complete this form, it is important that you also talk to your doctor, your family, or others who may be involved in decisions about your care, to make sure they understand what you meant when you filled out this form. A health care professional can help you with this form and can answer any questions you might have.

Privacy Act Information and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

The information requested on this form is solicited under the authority of 38.C.F.R. §17.32. It is being collected to document your preferences about your medical care in the event you are no longer able to express these preferences. The information you provide may be disclosed outside the VA as permitted by law; possible disclosures include those described in the "routine uses" identified in the VA system of records 24VA19, Patient Medical Record-VA, published in the Federal Register in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974. This is also available in the Compilation of Privacy Act Issuances via online GPO access at http://www.access.gpo.gov/su\_docs/aces/. Completion of this form is voluntary; however, without this information VA health care providers may have less information about your preferences. Failure to furnish the information will have no adverse effect on any other benefits which you may be entitled to receive. The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 requires us to notify you that this information collection is in accordance with the clearance requirements of section 3507 of this Act. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. No person will be penalized for failing to furnish this information if it does not display a currently valid OMB control number.

PART II: DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE

This section of the advance directive form is called a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care. This section of the form allows you to appoint a specific person to make health care decisions for you in case you become unable to make decisions for yourself. This person will be called your Health Care Agent. Your Health Care Agent should be someone you trust, who knows you well, and is familiar with your values and beliefs. Your Health Care Agent will have the authority to make all health care decisions for you, including decisions to admit you to and discharge you from any hospital or other health care institution. Your Health Care Agent can also decide to start or stop any type of clinical treatment, and can access your personal health information, including information from your medical records. NOTE: Information about whether you have been tested for HIV or treated for AIDS, sickle cell anemia, substance abuse or alcoholism cannot be shared with your Health Care Agent unless you give special written consent. Ask your VA health care provider for the special form you must sign (VA Form 3288) if you wish to give permission for VA to share this information with your Health Care Agent.

PART III: LIVING WILL

This section of the advance directive form is called a Living Will. This section of the form allows you to write down how you want to be treated in case you become unable to make decisions for yourself. Its purpose is to inform the people who will be making decisions about your care.

A - HOW STRICTLY YOU WANT YOUR PREFERENCES FOLLOWED

Initial the box next to the statement that reflects how strictly you want your preferences to be followed. Choose only one.

Initials

I want my preferences, expressed below, to serve as a general guide. I understand that in some situations the person making decisions for me may decide something different from the preferences I express below if they think it is in my best interest.

Initials

I want my preferences, expressed below, to be followed strictly, even if the person who is making decisions for me thinks this is not in my best interest.

B - GENERAL PREFERENCES ABOUT LIFE-SUSTAINING TREATMENTS

Life-sustaining treatments are used to try to keep you alive when you are so sick that you would probably die without them. These treatments can include cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), mechanical ventilation (breathing machine), artificial fluid and nutrition (feeding tubes), dialysis (kidney machine), etc.

Initial the box next to your choice. Choose only one.

Initials

I would always want life-sustaining treatments started and continued regardless of my situation or how sick I am.

Initials

In some situations, I would want to be allowed to die naturally and not have life-sustaining treatments.

D - ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

Use this space to write any other preferences about your health care that are important to you and that are not described elsewhere in this document. This may include general preferences about how you would like to be cared for or specific requests. For example, you might have clear opinions about whether you would want a particular treatment (for example, a feeding tube or blood transfusions). You might want to comment on treatment of pain, or whether you would want life-sustaining treatments on a trial basis. Or you might want to write about your preferences regarding treatment of mental illness.
