POWER OF ATTORNEY FORM FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Who can use this form?

If you are a participant or the beneficiary of a deceased participant, you may use the Power of Attorney form to name someone to represent you on matters relating to your benefits. Other people may also file a PBGC Power of Attorney. An alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order (“QDRO”) may designate a representative using this form.

What if I am a legally recognized representative, such as a parent or a judicially appointed guardian, conservator, or executor of a person who can sign this form?

If you are a legally recognized representative (a custodial relative or guardian, conservator, or executor) of a participant, beneficiary, or alternate payee, you may use the Power of Attorney Form to name a person to represent you before the PBGC on some or all matters relating to the receipt of pension benefits. Please call PBGC’s Customer Contact Center at 1-800-400-7242 for special instructions for completing this form.

Do I have to use this form?

No. If you do not use this form, you should be careful to include all of the information required by this form.

What can I use this form for?

The representative you name on the Power of Attorney form may do all the actions listed in Section 3A, unless you check Section 3B and allow only certain actions.

How do I file the Power of Attorney?

File the power of attorney by mailing the original form to PBGC, P.O. Box 151750, Alexandria, VA 22315-1750. If you are dealing with any particular person within the PBGC, you may also want to provide a copy of the Power of Attorney to that person.

What if I am a participant in more than one PBGC pension plan?

Usually, you only need to file one form. Be sure to list all of the plans and their case numbers on page 1. You can get the plan names and case numbers from our letters to you.

What if I already have a Power of Attorney on file with PBGC?

The filing of this Power of Attorney does not alter any earlier Power(s) of Attorney filed with PBGC for the matters covered by this Form. Once you have granted a Power of Attorney it will remain in effect unless you revoke it in writing. If you grant a Power of Attorney for a particular matter to more than one person, any of those persons may exercise his or her Power of Attorney on that matter.

Can I limit my representative’s powers?

Yes. Mark in item B on the page 2 only the powers you want to grant.

Does my representative need to sign this form?

Yes. Your representative must sign and date the form on page 3 to accept your designation. PBGC will return a Power of Attorney form unless both you and your representative have signed and dated it.
