Recently, we sent you a letter telling you about an important housing survey The Gallup Organization is conducting on behalf of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. If you have already returned the postcard, please accept our sincere thanks. If you haven't, we urge you to take a few minutes to do so now. The information is being collected for the Housing Survey of the Consumer Price Index (CPI). The CPI is the country's most widely used measure of inflation and is used to adjust such things as Social Security payments to about 48 million Americans and lunch prices for about 27 million school children. If you have questions about this request, please call Gallup toll-free at 1-866-834-5118. Otherwise, please complete the question, tear off the postcard, and mail it back to Gallup today.

Thank you for your help!
