

RI 34-3 (November 2006) Justification

Item C was revised to make it clear that a person may request more than one option and that our decision may be appealed. The only other change is to designate the former item D as item 8 to agree with the numbering system on Part 2. This caused us to change the two following items to D and E, rather than E and F.