Section 1 General Instructions

Before you complete this application, be sure to read Part I of booklet RB-30, Spouse/Divorced Spouse Annuity, which explains information you will need to answer many of the questions in this application. Also be sure to read the important notices on the last page of the booklet RB-30.

Print all answers in ink or use a typewriter. If you need more space than is provided to answer a question, use Section 15 for this purpose. If you do not know the answer to a question, print "unknown" in the space provided for the answer.

When entering dates, always use numbers. Also, be sure there is one number in each box. For example, you would enter June 6, 2001, as:

Month	Day	Year
0   6	0   6	2   0   0   1

Some items in this application will not apply to you so you will not need to answer them. Based on your answer to a question, you may be told to skip to another item number, or even another section. Follow the instructions that tell you to "Go to" another item. These are designed to save you time and help you move through the application form quickly filling in only necessary information. If no "Go to" instructions are given, answer the next item in order. Do not skip any items unless directed to do so.

If you are completing this application on behalf of someone else, you must answer each question as it applies to the applicant.

Section 2 Identifying Information

I know that if I make a false or fraudulent statement in order to receive benefits from the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB), I am committing a crime which is punishable under Federal law. I have received the booklets, RB-30, Spouse/Divorced Spouse Annuity and RB-9, Employee and Spouse Annuities—Events That Must Be Reported. I understand that I am responsible for reporting events that would affect my annuity as explained in these booklets. I certify that the information I gave the RRB on this application is true to the best of my knowledge.

I agree to immediately notify the RRB:

- IF I go to work for any employer in the railroad industry;
- IF I am filing in advance of the date(s) shown in Item(s) 51 (and 58), and there is a change in a date;
- IF I return to work for the nonrailroad employer(s) named in Items 63 and 66; or, if there is a change in my earnings from these employers;
- IF I begin to receive benefits directly from the Social Security Administration;
- IF I begin to receive a public service pension or there is a change in the amount of my public service pension;
- IF my marriage ends in death or divorce (if I am filing for a spouse annuity);
- IF I remarry (if I am filing for a divorced spouse annuity);
- IF a child on whose basis I am entitled to an annuity marries, dies, or leaves my care and custody;
- IF my address changes; or
- IF I am confined in a jail, prison, penal institution, or correctional facility due to a conviction for a criminal offense.

Also, if I am covered by the earnings restriction provisions of the Railroad Retirement Act, I agree to immediately notify the RRB if I earn more than the annual earnings exempt amount. Failure to report my earnings on a timely basis may result in a penalty deduction from my annuity.

Section 17 How To Return Your Application

Before you return your application, check to make sure that:

- Every question that applies to you has been answered.
- You have entered "unknown" in any answer space for which you were unable to answer a question.
- You have signed and dated the application.
- You have included all the needed proofs listed in the letter you received with this application.

When you received your application, you should also have received a pre-addressed return envelope. If you do not have this envelope, you can use any envelope as long as it is addressed to the RRB office shown on page 15 of this application. No matter which envelope you use, you must put the correct postage on the envelope. Be careful to provide enough postage, because your application and the accompanying forms may weigh more than a standard letter. The U.S. Postal Service will not deliver your application unless it has the correct postage.

Make one final check before you seal the envelope to ensure that the following are enclosed:

- NEEDED PROOFS
- THE APPLICATION FORM ITSELF
- ADDITIONAL FORMS YOU WERE ASKED TO COMPLETE

Note: After the RRB receives your application, a receipt form with information about your claim will be sent to you. When you receive it, you will know that the RRB has received your application and has started the work needed to determine if you are entitled to benefits. If you do not receive the receipt within two weeks after you have filed this application, please contact us so we can find out what is causing the delay.
