PRIVACY ACT ADVISORY STATEMENT

The Privacy Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-479) requires that you be given certain information in connection with: (a) The request for information solicited on Form CD-346; or (b) The request for your Social Security Number. Accordingly, pursuant to the requirements of the Act, please be advised:

THE AUTHORITY FOR THE COLLECTION OF THIS DATA IS: 42 USC 3211(12); as well as the responsibilities cited in the Inspector General Act of 1978, Sec. 4(a)(3)

THE PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S) FOR WHICH THE DATA WILL BE USED IS:

Information is used to establish good character of principal officers and employees of organizations, firms or recipients or beneficiaries of grants, loans, or loan guarantee programs that may receive grants, loans, or guarantees from the U.S. Department of Commerce.

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER IS VOLUNTARY DATA, BUT PROVIDING YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER MAY REDUCE DELAYS IN THE REVIEW PROCESS.

QUESTION 11 CONTINUATION:

PREFATORY STATEMENT OF GENERAL ROUTINE USES

The following routine uses apply to, and are incorporated by reference into, each system of records set forth below:

1. In the event that a system of records maintained by the department to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law or contract, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute or contract, or rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto, or the necessity to protect an interest of the Department, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute or contract, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto, or protecting the interest of the Department.
2. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses if necessary to obtain information relevant to a Department decision concerning the hiring or retention of an individual, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.
3. A record from this system may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Federal, state, or local, or international agency, in response to its request, in connection with the assignment, hiring or retention of an individual, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an individual, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.
4. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of settlement negotiations.
5. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Member of Congress submitting a request involving an individual when the individual has requested assistance from the Member with respect to the subject matter of the record.
6. A record in this system of records which contains medical information may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the medical advisor of any individual submitting a request for access to the record under the Act and 15 CFR Part 4b if, in the sole judgement of the Department, disclosure could have an adverse effect upon the individual, under the provision of 5 U.S.C. 552a(f) (3) and implementing regulations at 15 CFR 4b.6.
7. Deleted, Reserved.
8. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular No. A-19 at any state of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.
9. A record in this system may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Department of Justice in connection with determining whether disclosure thereof is required by the Freedom of Information Act 5 U.S.C. 552.
10. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a contractor of the Department having need for the information in the performance of the contract, but not operating a system of records within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. 552a(m).
11. Deleted, Reserved.
12. A record in this system may be transferred, as a routine use, to the Office of Personnel Management for personnel research purposes; as a data source for management information; for the production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained; or for related man-power studies.
13. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Archivist of the United States, National Archives & Records Administration (NARA), or his designee, during an inspection of records conducted by NARA as part of that agency's responsibility to recommend improvements in records management practices and programs, under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906. Such disclosure shall be made in accordance with the NARA regulations governing inspection of records for this purpose, and other relevant (i.e., NARA or Commerce) directive. Such disclosure shall not be used to make determinations about individuals.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

The public reporting burden for this collection is estimated to average 15 minutes per response including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: Office of Inspector General, Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230.
