Guidelines for new welfare-related work situations:

If the person himself/herself earns any money at all (including compensation in the form of a paycheck, a welfare check, or any other form of payment) then enter this work the same way as for any other paid job. Such work makes the person a worker.

This definition means that the kinds of work on the following list of allowable activities to permit receipt of welfare payments are to be treated the same as any other work for pay or profit:

- work done solely in exchange for a welfare check
- unsubsidized employment
- subsidized private-sector employment
- subsidized public-sector employment
