

SUPPORTING STATEMENT
(IRS Form 1120S, Schedule D, and Schedule K-1)

1. CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

Section 6037 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) requires every S corporation to make a return for each year. Section 1.6037-1 of 26 CFR requires that the return be filed on Form 1120S and its supporting schedules.

The corporation is required by 26 CFR 1.6037-1 to set forth items of gross income. If the corporation has capital gain income (or loss) as defined in IRC section 1222, this income (or loss) must be reported on Schedule D (Form 1120S). Schedule D provides for the reporting of gain or loss from sales or exchanges of capital assets and the computation of tax on certain capital gains and built-in gains imposed by IRC section 1374. Schedule D is attached as a supporting statement to Form 1120S.

The corporation must also report the information required by 26 CFR 1.6037-1(a)(1) through (5). Generally, this information is reported on Schedule K of Form 1120S and each shareholder's distributable share is reported on Schedule K-1. A copy of Schedule K-1 is given to each separate shareholder to assist them in preparing their individual income tax returns.

2. USE OF DATA

Form 1120S data is used by the IRS to determine if income and other related tax items have been properly figured and reported. A corporation tax on certain net passive income is figured by the S corporation on an attachment for line 22a of Form 1120S. Schedule D (Form 1120S) is used to figure the corporation's section 1374 tax liability for the capital gains tax and/or built-in gains tax. Schedule D also provides IRS with information to determine if the tax liability for the capital gains tax and the built-in gains tax is figured correctly. Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S) provides IRS with information to determine if the individual shareholders of the corporation have properly reported their attributable shares of income or loss, deductions, credits, recapture tax, and information items on their individual income tax returns.

However, we did not receive any response from taxpayers on this subject. As a result, estimates of the cost burdens are not available at this time.
