General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

CDEs must provide notification to any taxpayer who acquires a qualified equity investment in a CDE at its original issue that the equity investment is a qualified equity investment entitling the taxpayer to claim the new markets credit. This form is used to make the notification as required under Regulations section 1.45D-1(g)(2)(i)(A).

Where To File

Attn: LIHC Unit
DP 607 South, Philadelphia Campus
Internal Revenue Service
P.O. Box 331
Bensalem, PA 19020

When To File

The original signed form must be provided by the CDE to the taxpayer no later than 60 days after the date the taxpayer makes the investment in the CDE. Send a copy of the form to the IRS at the address listed above. Keep a copy for your records.

A separate form must be provided for each qualified equity investment.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.

We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We need it to figure and collect the right amount of tax. Subtitle C, Employment Taxes, of the Internal Revenue Code imposes employment taxes on wages, including income tax withholding. This form is used to determine the amount of the taxes that you owe. Section 6011 requires you to provide the requested information if the tax is applicable to you. Section 6109 requires you to provide your employer identification number (EIN). If you fail to provide this information in a timely manner, you may be subject to penalties and interest.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books and records relating to a form or instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law.

Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103. However, section 6103 allows or requires the IRS to disclose or give the information shown on your tax return to others as described in the Code. For example, we may disclose your tax information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, and the District of Columbia for use in administering their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.
