Candidates will need a Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN) in order to register for any exam. The reason for requiring the PTIN is for security and tracking purposes. Those candidates who do not have a PTIN should request one by completing a Form W-7P, Application For Preparer Tax Identification Number, either on-line, by mail or by fax. The on-line process is the quickest method, with the instantaneous issuance of the PTIN. To apply on-line go to www.irs.gov, click on "Tax Professionals" and then scroll down to "e-services - On-line tool for Tax Professionals". Once you have registered for e-services, follow the instructions to have a PTIN assigned. For additional information regarding requesting a PTIN and for special rules for foreign based tax candidates without a PTIN, please go to www.prometric.com/irs.

6. Optional consent for IRS to disclose enrollment information

Your mailing address is confidential. By checking the optional consent box, you are authorizing the Office of Professional Responsibility to disclose your mailing address and name to the general public, professional organizations and continuing education providers.
