

Justification

Since those who reside overseas pursuant to military or government orders, including conditional resident dependents residing overseas cannot appear at a Administrative Support Center in the United States to be fingerprinted and photographed, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services will allow the petitioner to be fingerprinted and photographed overseas.