

Current and Future Conditions in the Upper Las Vegas Wash Non-Response Follow-Up Telephone Survey

Introduction

Hello, my name is _____, and I'm calling from Utah State University about a study that we're conducting for the Bureau of Land Management. Over the past two months we've tried several times to contact your household by mail to request participation in a public survey focusing on future management of the Upper Las Vegas Wash, an undeveloped public land area located to the north of your neighborhood. Although we have completed the mail survey process, we're following up now with people who did not find the time to complete our survey questionnaire and asking if they could spend just 5 minutes on the telephone to answer a few key questions that are really important to our study. Results from this study will help the BLM to make better decisions about future use and management of the Upper Las Vegas Wash.

To help insure that we talk to a mix of men and women, and to both younger and older residents across the state, may I please speak with the member of your household who is 18 years of age or older and whose birthday has occurred most recently?

(IF NOT AVAILABLE, ASK FOR CALL-BACK INFORMATION – who to ask for, when it will be best to call).

(REPEAT INITIAL INTRODUCTORY PARAGRAPH ONCE PROPER RESPONDENT IS ON THE LINE)

(NOTE: THE INTERVIEWER WILL HAVE THE OMB CONTROL NUMBER AND PRA STATEMENT IN CASE SOMEONE ASKS ON THE PHONE SURVEY)

Before we start, I want to assure you that there are no anticipated risks involved with participation in this study. Your participation is voluntary, and all of your responses will remain anonymous. We are calling people who could not respond to our mail survey at random, and we're not recording names, addresses, or any other identifying information. Study results will be reported only as summaries based on grouped data, so that no individual's answers can be identified. So, can we get started with the first question?
