This information solicited on this form is requested under the authority of the International Child Abduction Remedies Act, Public Law 100-300. The primary purpose for soliciting the information is to evaluate applicants' claims under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, advise applicants about available legal remedies, and locate abducted children. The principal users of this information are offices within the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Consular Affairs. The information will be used to assist in facilitating operations under the Convention and may be provided to governments of member countries, bar associations and legal aid services, local police, social service agencies, and parents. This information may also be released on a need-to-know basis to other government agencies, including foreign agencies, having statutory or other lawful authority to gain access to such information. Furnishing your social security number, as well as the other information requested on this form, is voluntary. However, failure to submit this form or to provide all the requested information may result in delay in the processing of your application.

*Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including time required for searching existing data sources, gathering the necessary data, providing the information required, and reviewing the final collection. You do not have to provide this information requested if the OMB approval has expired. Send comments on the accuracy of this estimate of the burden and recommendations for reducing it to: U.S. Department of State (A/ISS/DIR), 1800 G Street, Washington, DC 20520.
