

This is the starting point to request a review of our medical decision about your eligibility for disability benefits. There are two parts to this Internet Appeal process: (1) an Appeal Request form; and (2) an Appeal Disability Report that gives us more information about your condition. You can complete both forms online. To appeal online, you may submit only an appeal request (Part 1). We are asking you to also submit an Appeal Disability Report (Part 2) because it will give us more information about you and help us in processing your appeal.

It takes approximately 45 minutes to complete the paper SSA-3441 (Disability Report - Appeal). This does not include the time that you may have to wait for an interview with a Social Security representative. It takes approximately 2 hours to complete the online Disability Report - Appeal (i3441).

If you do not want to use the Internet to request your appeal, there are Other Ways to Request an Appeal or Complete a Disability Report.
