1.11.4 Raw data

It is of utmost importance that the names of the respondents be protected. Confidentiality and impartiality are very important attributes of this survey. To that end, at the end of the survey period, a “dump” of the raw data in a comma delimited flat file/Excel spreadsheet format in “read only” mode shall be delivered to FSA and ACS simultaneously. Once the survey ends, there will be a conference call between FSA, ACS, and TTI to ensure that all of the requirements for data transmission are being met.

The data file should contain for both testing and production a Global Unique Identifier that masks the email addresses of the respondents. This is to be used strictly for purposes of data analysis and to ensure that we can map back to a row in the database should the reports become corrupted.

The data file will also contain a legend that maps the raw question ID in the data to the actual question. See example below:

Area	Unique Question ID	Text of Question
BO	ID_Q2_S1_8	How satisfied/dissatisfied were you with the CSB counterpart's ability to understand the issue?
BO	ID_Q3_S1_9	How satisfied/dissatisfied were you with the CSB counterpart's ability to escalate the issue if required to obtain a solution?
BO	ID_Q4_S1_10	How satisfied/dissatisfied were you with the timeframe in which the CSB counterpart took to address the issue?
BO	ID_Q5_S1_11	How satisfied/dissatisfied were you with the ability of the CSB counterpart to interpret requirements according to schedule?
BO	ID_Q6_S1_12	How satisfied/dissatisfied were you with the level of urgency that the CSB counterpart places on (or associates with) the issue?

BO	ID_Q7_S1_13	How satisfied/dissatisfied were you with the ability of the CSB counterpart to coordinate resources to resolve problems?
BO	ID_Q8_S1_14	How satisfied/dissatisfied were you with the quality of the service provided by the CSB counterpart?
