

Census Jobs

Earn good pay.

Census jobs pay competitive wages and are close to home. Census employees are reimbursed for authorized expenses such as mileage. Qualified applicants can earn money by working for approximately 5 to 10 weeks in mid-2007 and in early 2008.

North Carolina—$11.50–13.75/hour
California—$12.25–14.50/hour

Learn new skills.

Conducting a census dress rehearsal requires a wide variety of positions, but by far most jobs are as census takers. As a census taker, you may be trained to use a handheld computer for some operations.

Serve your community.

Take part in shaping the 2010 Census, which affects funding in your community and affects your voice in Congress.

What Should You Do?

Look for it—March 2008

The 2008 Census Dress Rehearsal questionnaire will arrive at your home in March of 2008.

Fill it out

The image shows a sample of the 2008 Census Dress Rehearsal questionnaire. The form is titled "United States Census 2010 2008 Census Dress Rehearsal" and includes instructions for completion. It features a "Start here" section and a "What is Person 1's name?" section with fields for Last Name and First Name.

It takes just a few minutes to complete the questionnaire.

Send it back

The U.S. Census Bureau provides a postage-paid envelope for your convenience.

Cooperate

Census workers will visit households that do not return questionnaires. If a census worker visits you, please answer his or her questions. Your answers are confidential.

Thank you!

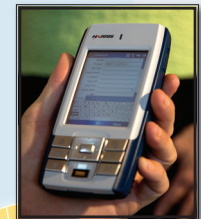

By completing and mailing back the questionnaire, you will help the Census Bureau ensure an accurate 2010 Census.

If Someone Comes to Your Door

All employees will have a Census Bureau badge. Some Census Bureau employees will also have a Census Bureau bag or a handheld computer or both.
