E. MIGRATORY BIRD SCIENTIFIC COLLECTING
(Migratory Bird Treaty Act, 50 CFR 21.21, 21.23; Eagle Act, 50 CFR 22.21)

Note: A Federal Scientific Collecting Permit is required to capture or collect migratory birds for scientific purposes. Permits are available to scientists and researchers affiliated with scientific or educational institutions, organizations, or agencies. Anyone who will be assisting with the permitted activities must either possess their own Federal permit or have a letter from the permit holder designating them as a subpermittee under that permit. (They may also require a State permit.) The permit holder assumes all liability and responsibility for any activity conducted under the authority of the permit (50 CFR 13.50). Since a migratory bird permit doesn't authorize trespass on private or publicly managed lands, authorization from land owners or land managers is required to conduct activities on their property, including collection on Federal lands. Specimens collected under a scientific collecting permit must be released or deposited with a public scientific or educational institution upon completion of the study, unless a special purpose permit authorizing possession for a longer period is obtained. Eagle parts must be deposited with the National Eagle Repository. A scientific collecting permit may be valid for up to 3 years. Please read "What You Should Know About A Migratory Bird Scientific Collecting Permit" and the pertinent regulations before you sign and submit your application.

USGS Bird Banding Permits: A banding permit issued by the U.S. Geological Survey's Bird Banding Lab is required for all migratory bird banding and marking activities. Banding permits may also authorize blood and feather sampling of birds captured for banding. If you have a banding permit that authorizes these activities, you don't need a scientific collecting permit to conduct these activities; however, any other capture and sampling activities not covered by a banding permit will require a scientific collecting permit.

Protected Species: Only birds listed in the Code of Federal Regulations (50 CFR 10.13) require a federal migratory bird permit. To view a list of species in the U.S. and their status under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, go to: <http://www.fws.gov/migratorybirds/issues/nonnative/MBTA-protected&NonprotectedSpecies.htm>

You should be as specific as possible in your responses to the questions below. We strongly recommend that you submit your application at least 60 days prior to the date that you need your permit, as required by 50 CFR 13.11(c).

1. Please answer the following questions:

- a. What is the purpose of your collecting activity (check all that apply)?
  - (1)  Individual Research Project
  - (2)  Museum/Institutional Collection (accessioned for research, teaching, or reference)
  - (3)  Other (specify): _____
- b. Do you wish to be permitted to salvage specimens of migratory birds you find dead, infertile eggs, and inactive nests?

- c. Provide the date you wish to start collecting (month/day/year): _____
- d. Provide the date you anticipate completing collection and holding of birds (month/year): _____
- e. Do you wish to be permitted to import/export lawfully acquired specimens to/from the United States for scientific or educational purposes?
 Yes  No
- f. You must retain records relating to the activities conducted under your permit for at least 5 years after the date of expiration of your permit. Is the physical address you provided in Section C on page 1 of this application the address where your records will be kept?
 Yes  No If "no", provide the physical address. _____
- g. Have you obtained all required State permits or approvals to conduct this activity?
 Yes If "yes", attach a copy of the approval(s).  Have applied  None required

2. Please attach a description of your proposed activity, including:

- a. A completed copy of the attached Collecting Activity Table identifying the species and quantity of migratory birds you propose to collect, where collecting will occur, the type of collecting, and the duration of collection activities.
- b. Justification for the proposed scientific collecting, including an outline or study proposal for any proposed research. If live-capture is proposed, describe the method of capture. If applicable, describe where and for how long live birds will be maintained in captivity, and provide a description of the enclosures. If trap and relocate is proposed, provide location(s) where birds will be released to the wild, including specific sites if known. If migratory game bird species will be collected during an established hunting season, specify if the proposed method of collecting is currently authorized under applicable hunting regulations or will require authorization for a special collecting method.

3. Please provide the following information as part of your outline, study plan, or on a separate sheet of paper:

- a. A full description of your background and expertise in conducting the proposed activities. If this information is already contained in another permit file in your permitting office, you may refer to the permit number for that file.
- b. The name and address of the public scientific or educational institution(s) to which all migratory bird specimens will be donated upon completion of the study.
- c. If you propose to collect in the United States but do not reside here, provide the name of a contact, an address, a telephone number, a Fax number (if available), and email address where you can be reached in the United States.

Migratory Bird Scientific Collecting Permit Application
Collecting Activity Table

In the table below, list the species (scientific and common name listed in 50 CFR 10.13) and quantity of migratory birds and eggs you propose to collect; the location(s) where collecting is proposed (State and, if known, specific Counties or sites); and the type of collecting you propose (e.g., trap and release, trap and relocate, trap and retain, lethal collection, viable egg collection). If this will be a multi-year project, indicate the species and quantities to be collected each year or throughout the duration of the project. See the accompanying Instructions for Completing the Scientific Collecting Activity Table below. Use the categories provided below as much as possible but if your collecting request does not fit the categories below, provide further clarification in your written outline, study proposal, or justification. Attach the completed table to your Scientific Collecting Application.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING COLLECTING ACTIVITY TABLE

Species

Identify the species you propose to collect. Use the scientific and common name(s) listed in 50 CFR 10.13. (See list at <http://www.fws.gov/migratorybirds/issues/nonnative/MBTA-protected&NonprotectedSpecies.htm>)

State

Specify the state where you propose to collect the species. Enter only one state per row.

County or Site (If Known)

You may enter one or more counties, boroughs, or specific collection sites where the collection will occur per row. This block may be left blank.

Collection Period (Calendar Years)

If your project is a single year project, the collection period is “Year 1.” If your project is a multiyear project and you intend to collect the same number of specimens annually, the collection period is “Annually.” If your project is a multiyear project, the quantity of specimens will vary each year, and you will be collecting opportunistically each year, the collection period is “Permit Duration (3 years).” If your project is multiyear and the number of specimens will vary each year but you intend to collect a specific quantity of specimens each year, the collection period is “Year 1,” “Year 2,” and “Year 3,” as needed; you will need to duplicate rows for that species.

Types of Collecting Activities

Do not overlap quantities; the quantities entered in the various types of collecting activities across each row must be mutually exclusive.

Lethal Collection

Enter the maximum quantity of specimens of that species that you propose to kill. This includes shooting or any other proposed method of lethal collection.

Viable Egg Collection

Enter the maximum quantity of eggs (believed to be viable) you plan to collect. If you plan to collect nests with eggs, estimate the maximum number of eggs per nest. This also includes viable eggs that are collected, incubated, and the hatchlings retained or released. Collection of eggs known to be nonviable is considered salvage and should not be included here.

Trap & Retain

Enter the maximum quantity of specimens of that species that you propose to live-trap and retain in captivity permanently (either life-long or euthanized upon completion of the study).

Trap & Release

Enter the maximum quantity of specimens of that species that you propose to live-trap and release at the capture site (e.g., after collection of samples or data). This may include prolonged holding prior to release.

Trap & Relocate

Enter the maximum quantity of specimens of that species that you propose to live-trap at the capture site and release at another location. This may include prolonged holding prior to release.

My Collecting Request Doesn't Fit Your Collecting Categories

Use the categories provided as much as possible; provide further clarification in your written outline, study proposal, or justification.

Maximum Annual Total Requested

Add the quantities per species from all types of collecting that you have listed; enter the sum in this column (e.g. [Maximum Annual Total Requested] = [Lethal Collection] + [Viable Egg Collection] + [Trap & Retain] + [Trap & Release] + [Trap & Relocate]). If your project is a multiyear project, the quantity of specimens will vary each year, and you will be collecting opportunistically each year, you may leave the Maximum Annual Total Requested block blank.

Total Quantity Requested

If your project is a single year project, the Total Quantity Requested is the same as the Maximum Annual Total Requested. If your project is a multiyear project and you intend to collect the same number of specimens annually, the Total Quantity Requested is three times the Maximum Annual Total Requested (e.g. [Total Quantity Requested] = 3 x [Maximum Annual Total Requested]). If your project is a multiyear project, the quantity of specimens will vary each year, and you will be collecting opportunistically each year, the Total Quantity Requested is the sum of all types of collecting that you have listed (e.g. [Maximum Annual Total Requested] = [Lethal Collection] + [Viable Egg Collection] + [Trap & Retain] + [Trap & Release] + [Trap & Relocate]). If your project is multiyear and the number of specimens will vary each year but you intend to collect a specific quantity of specimens each year, add the Maximum Annual Totals for Year 1, Year 2, and Year 3 (as applicable).
