circumstances.

- Except as noted below, all applicants for initial registration, re-registration or renewal of temporary treatment benefits...must submit the $70.00 biometrics services fee.
- TPS applicants under 14 years of age who are not filing for an EAD are exempt from biometrics collection and the associated biometrics fee.
- USCIS may, in its discretion, waive the collection of certain biometrics such as fingerprints and signatures.

If the Federal Register notice announcing the designation or extension of a particular country required photos to be submitted...lightly print your name and Alien Registration Number (A#), if any, on the back of the photographs.

- Yes, except as noted below, all applicants for initial registration, re-registration or renewal of temporary treatment benefits must provide fingerprints, photographs and signatures. These are examples of biometrics. Applicants must submit the $80.00 biometrics services fee or a fee waiver request in accordance with 8 CFR 244.20. Please see No. 12 for more information about fee waiver requests.
- TPS applicants under 14 years of age who are not filing for an EAD are exempt from biometrics collection and the associated biometrics fee.
- USCIS may, in its discretion, waive the collection of certain biometrics.
- TPS applicants will be sent a notice scheduling them to appear at an Application Support Center (ASC) for biometrics collection. Failure to comply with this notice may result in the denial of the TPS application.

Reporting Burden

17. Reporting Burden.

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection. A person is not required to respond to an information collection unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate, can easily be understood and impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. Often this is difficult because some immigration laws are very complex.

The estimated average time to complete this application is 1 hour and 30 minutes computed as follows: 1) learning about the form and understanding the instructions, 30 minutes; 2) collecting the necessary supporting documents 15 minutes; 3) completing the form, 15 minutes; and 4) traveling to and waiting at a preparer's office (e.g. attorney or voluntary agency), 30 minutes.

If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this estimate, or suggestions for making this form simpler, you can write to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Management Division, 111 Massachusetts Avenue N.W., 3rd Floor, Suite 3008, Washington, DC 20529; OMB No. 1615-
