

SCHEDULING LOGISTICS

Site coordinators will be asked to assist researchers in scheduling observation visits twice over the course of the study. Although this is not an instrument, it will result in a time burden.

The U.S. Department of Education wants to protect the privacy of individuals who participate in surveys. Your answers will be combined with other surveys, and no one will know how you answered the questions. This survey is authorized by law (1) Sections 171(b) and 173 of the Education Sciences Reform Act of 2002, Pub. We will not provide information that identifies you or your district to anyone outside the study team, except as required by law.
