EFT Payment

If you maintain a checking or savings account in a US or affiliated bank then you may be able to make your payment by EFT (Electronic Funds Transfer). The EFT payment method will allow the cost of your payment to be withdrawn directly from the checking or savings account that you designate. If you would like to read more about the EFT payment method click here. If you do not have an account with a US or affiliated bank, you must first establish such an account, or you will not be able to pay by EFT.

NOTE: Some banks do not allow EFT payments from a savings account; please check with your financial institution to verify whether they allow this type of funds transfer.

Privacy Act Statement for Deposit Accounts

The Privacy Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-579) requires that you be given certain information in connection with your request for, or maintenance of, a deposit account. Accordingly, pursuant to the requirements of the Act, please be advised that: (1) the authority for the collection of this information is 35 U.S.C. 2, 37 CFR 1.25, and 37 CFR 2.208; (2) furnishing of the information solicited is voluntary; and (3) the principal purpose for which the information is used by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office is to establish a deposit account, maintain existing accounts, or charge the appropriate fee amount to the appropriate deposit account. If you do not furnish the requested information, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office may not be able to establish a deposit account, properly account for funds submitted to maintain the account, or debit fees from the correct deposit account.

The information provided by you in this form will be subject to the following routine uses:

1. The information on this form will be treated confidentially to the extent allowed under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) and the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552(a)). Records from this system of records may be disclosed to the Department of Justice to determine whether disclosure of these records is required by the Freedom of Information Act.
 2. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of settlement negotiations.
 3. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Member of Congress submitting a request involving an individual when the individual has requested assistance from the Member with respect to the subject matter of the record.
 4. A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a contractor of the Agency having need for the information in order to perform the contract. Recipients of information shall be required to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(m).
 5. A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Administrator, General Services, or his designee, during an inspection of records conducted by GSA as part of that agency's responsibility to recommend improvements in records management practices and programs, under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906. Such disclosure shall be made in accordance with the GSA regulations governing inspection of records for this purpose, and any other relevant (i.e., GSA or Commerce) directive. Such disclosure shall not be used to make determinations about individuals.
