

AMERICAN CUSTOMER SATISFACTION INDEXIRS Small Business & Self-Employed Division (SBSE)
Department of Treasury

Hello, I'm _____ with Market Strategies, a market research firm, calling on behalf of CFI Group. We would like to ask you about your experiences with the services you received from the Internal Revenue Service. The purpose of the research is to help the IRS improve its services to small businesses like yours. Your name will be confidential, and I will ask you only about products and services you have recently purchased and used. Your participation is voluntary and poses no foreseeable risk to you. You may stop at any time or skip any question you do not wish to answer. Your opinions are important because you have been chosen randomly to represent consumers across the United States and your responses will be added to a growing IRS database of evaluations of customer satisfaction to improve the products and services provided to you, the consumer. This interview will take 8-10 minutes and is authorized by Office of Management and Budget Control No. 1505-0191.

Now, I am going to ask you some questions about the IRS process for filing your 2006 IRS corporate income tax return...

Q1. Before your most recent interaction with the IRS, you probably knew something about the IRS tax filing process for small businesses and the self-employed. Now think back and remember your expectations of the overall quality of the IRS tax filing process. Please give me a rating on a 10 point scale on which "1" means your expectations were "not very high" and "10" means your expectations were "very high."

How would you rate your expectations of the overall quality of the IRS tax filing process for small businesses and the self-employed?
