

SUPPORTING STATEMENT
(Forms W-8BEN, W-8ECI, W-8EXP, W-8IMY)

1. CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

Regulations under Section 1441, 1442, and 1443 of the Internal Revenue Code have changed the manner in which foreign persons (individuals, businesses and other for-profit organizations, foreign governments, international organizations, partnerships, and tax-exempt organizations) must submit certifications to a withholding agent for reduction of, or exemption from, U.S. tax withholding.

In general, foreign persons are subject to U.S. tax at a 30% rate on income they received from U.S. sources that consists of interest, dividends, rents, premiums, annuities, compensation for services performed, or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits, or income. Income that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States is also subject to such withholding. This tax is imposed on the gross amount paid and is generally collected by way of withholding on that amount. A payment is considered to have been made whether it is made directly to the beneficial owner of the income or to another person, such as an intermediary, agent, or partnership for the benefit of the beneficial owner.

Form W-8BEN is used for certain types of income to establish that the person is a foreign person, is the beneficial owner of the income for which Form W-8BEN is being provided and, if applicable, to claim a reduced rate of, or exemption from, withholding as a resident of a foreign country with which the United States has an income tax treaty. Form W-8ECI is used to establish that the person is a foreign person, is the beneficial owner of the income for which Form W-8ECI is being provided, and to claim that the income is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States. Form W-8EXP is used by a foreign government, international organization, foreign central bank of issue, foreign tax-exempt organization, or foreign private foundation. The form is used by such persons to establish foreign status, to claim that the person is the beneficial owner of the income for which Form W-8EXP is given and, if applicable, to claim a reduced rate of, or exemption from, withholding. Form W-8IMY is provided to a withholding agent or payer by a foreign intermediary, foreign partnership, and certain U.S. branches to make representations regarding the status of beneficial owners or to transmit appropriate documentation to the withholding agent.

Forms W-8BEN, W-8ECI, W-8EXP, and/or W-8IMY must be given to the withholding agent. Generally, the withholding agent will be the person from whom the payment is received or who credits the account of the beneficial owner. The form(s) must be given to the withholding agent before the income is paid or credited to the account. If the appropriate form(s) is not provided, the withholding agent may have to withhold at a 30% rate (nonresident alien withholding) or 28% (backup withholding) rate.

2. USE OF DATA

The information will be used by the withholding agent to ascertain the status of the beneficial owner or beneficial owner's intermediary as a foreign person, and to apply correct withholding rates based on information provided on the form(s) and applicable statute and treaty. The information will be used by the IRS for compliance purposes to verify that a withholding agent or intermediary has received all necessary information to enable the correct withholding rate to be applied and has collected and remitted the proper amount of withholding for a foreign person. The withholding agent may be liable for the tax if the proper amount is not withheld.

During these meetings, there is an opportunity for those attending to make comments regarding Form 8703.

In response to the Federal Register Notice dated May 10, 2007 (72 F.R. 26684), we received no comments during the comment period regarding Forms W-8BEN, W-8ECI, W-8EXP, or W-8IMY.

13. ESTIMATED TOTAL ANNUAL COST BURDEN TO RESPONDENTS

However, we did not receive any response from taxpayers on this subject. As a result, estimates of the cost burdens are not available at this time.
