

Instructions for I-612, Application for Waiver of the Foreign Residence Requirement [Under Section 212(e) of the INA, as Amended]*Instructions

Please read these instructions carefully to properly complete this form. If you need more space to complete an answer, use a separate sheet(s) of paper. Write your name and Alien Registration Number (A #), if any, at the top of each sheet of paper and indicate the part and number of the item to which the answer refers.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

In order to be eligible to apply for an immigrant visa or for permanent residence in the United States, or for a nonimmigrant visa as a temporary worker, certain exchange visitors (visa symbols J-1 and J-2) must reside and be physically present in the country of their nationality or last foreign residence for an aggregate of at least two years following departure from the United States.

An exchange visitor is subject to the two-year foreign residence requirements if:

1. His or her participation in the exchange program was financed at any time in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by an agency of the U.S. Government or by the government of his or her country of nationality or last foreign residence; or
2. Prior to issuance of an exchange visitor visa, or admission as an exchange visitor without a visa, or acquisition of status as an exchange visitor, to participate in an exchange program, his or her country of nationality or last foreign residence was designated by the U.S. Secretary of State as clearly requiring the alien's specialized knowledge or skill; or
3. He or she entered the United States as, or changed status to that of an exchange visitor on or after January 10, 1977, to participate in graduate medical education or training.

If a participant in an exchange program is subject to the two-year foreign residence requirement, his or her spouse and unmarried minor children who were admitted as exchange visitors or acquired such status after admission are also subject to this requirement. If you have any question as to whether you are subject to the two-year foreign residence requirement, the nearest U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) office or American embassy or consulate will respond to your concerns.

Who May File This Application?

This application may be submitted only by an alien who believes that compliance with the foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, would impose exceptional hardship on his or her spouse or child who is a citizen of the United States or a lawful permanent resident thereof, or by an alien who believes that returning to the country of his or her nationality or last residence would subject him or her to persecution on account of race, religion or political opinion.

Waiver of the two-year foreign residence requirement may be authorized only under the following circumstances:

1. The alien has a U.S. citizen or permanent resident spouse or unmarried minor child and establishes in an application to USCIS that compliance with the two-year foreign residence requirement would impose exceptional hardship on such spouse or child.
2. The alien establishes in an application to USCIS that returning to his or her country of nationality or last foreign residence would subject him or her to persecution on account of race, religion or political opinion.
3. A U.S. government agency requests the U.S. Secretary of State to recommend a waiver on the alien's behalf for the reason that compliance with the two-year foreign residence requirement would be detrimental to a program or activity of official interest to the agency.
4. The country of the alien's nationality or last foreign residence furnishes the U.S. Secretary of State a written statement that it has no objection to the waiver.

NOTE: This waiver is not available to an alien who came to the United States on or after January 10, 1977 as an exchange visitor, or who acquired such status on or after that date in order to receive graduate medical education or training.

In no case may the two-year foreign requirement be waived unless a favorable recommendation is made by the Director of the U.S. Information Agency to the Secretary, Department of Homeland Security.

An alien, who believes that a U.S. Government agency may be officially interested in his or her case and may wish to request a waiver on his or her behalf, should inquire directly to that agency concerning such request.

An alien who seeks a waiver of the foreign residence requirement on the basis that the foreign country of his or her citizenship/nationality or last foreign residence has no objection to the waiver should, if in the United States, apply directly to the embassy of the country concerned; or if abroad, should inquire at his to her foreign ministry.

Spouse of Applicant.

If your spouse is or was an exchange alien who is subject to the foreign residence requirement solely because of a relationship to you, he or she may be included in this application by checking "A" in Block 6 of the application.

If your spouse is subject to the foreign residence requirement because of participation in an exchange program, your spouse may apply for a waiver of the foreign residence requirement by submitting a separate application on Form I-612. In such case, "B" should be checked in Block 6 on each application.

General Instructions.

Step 1. Fill Out the Form I-612

1. Type or print legibly in black ink.
2. If extra space is needed to complete any item, attach a continuation sheet, indicate the item number, and date and sign each sheet.
3. Answer all questions fully and accurately. State that an item is not applicable with "N/A." If the answer is none, write "none."

Step 2. General requirements

The following documents must be submitted with this application:

1. To prove U.S. citizenship of a spouse or child, if you check "A" in Block 5.
 - A. If your spouse or child is a citizen by reason of birth in the United States, submit (a) a birth certificate of the spouse or child; or (b) if a birth certificate is unobtainable, a copy of the baptismal certificate (baptism must have occurred within two months after birth) under seal of the church, showing the place of birth; or (c) if the birth or baptismal certificate cannot be obtained, affidavits of two U. S. citizens who have personal knowledge of the birth of your spouse or child in the United States.
 - B. If your spouse or child was born outside the United States, became a citizen of the United States through a parent and has not been issued a certificate of citizenship, submit evidence of the citizenship and marriage of parent, as well as termination of any prior marriages of parent. Also submit a birth certificate of the child and a separate statement showing the dates, ports and means of all arrivals and departures into and from the United States by the spouse or child.

- C. If the naturalization of your spouse or child occurred within 90 days immediately preceding the filing of this application, submit a copy of the naturalization certificate.
2. To prove a relationship between the applicant and a spouse or child, if you check "A" in Block 5:

Every application must be accompanied by a certificate of marriage to the spouse and proof of legal termination of all previous marriages of the applicant and spouse. If the application is based on hardship to a child, also submit the birth certificate of the child.
 3. To support your application for a waiver: In addition to your own required statement, you may submit any documentary evidence available that you believe affects the exceptional hardship or persecution issues.
 4. If you are in the United States, you must submit your original temporary entry permit (Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record) and the original entry permit of your spouse, if he or she is in the United States and not a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident. If the entry permit is attached to the passport, remove and submit it for this purpose. Do not submit the passport.

Translations. Any document containing foreign language submitted to the Service shall be accompanied by a full English language translation which the translator has certified as complete and accurate, and by the translator's certification that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

Copies. Unless specifically required that an original document be filed with an application or petition, an ordinary legible photocopy may be submitted. Original documents submitted when not required will remain a part of the record, even if the submission was not required.

What Is the Filing Fee?

The filing fee for a Form I-612 is $545.00.

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your check or money order for the Form I-612 fee:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the check or money order payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security, unless:
 - A. If you live in Guam and are filing your petition there, make it payable to Treasurer, Guam.
 - B. If you live in the U.S. Virgin Islands and are filing your petition there, make it payable to Commissioner of Finance of the Virgin Islands.

NOTE: Please spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials "USDHS" or "DHS."

Notice to Those Making Payment by Check. If you send us a check, it will be converted into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours, and will be shown on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but we will keep a copy of it. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If the EFT cannot be completed because of insufficient funds, we may try to make the transfer up to two times.
