Specific Instructions

Net Worth of Parent(s) (Items 5A, 5B, and 5C)

Report the current value of all the interest and rights you have in any kind of property. This includes real estate, stocks, bonds and the amount of bank deposits, savings and loan accounts, and cash on hand. However, net worth does not include your single family dwelling unit and a reasonable lot area and personal things you use everyday like your vehicle, clothing, and furniture. If property is owned jointly by yourself and your spouse, report one-half of the total value held jointly for each of you.

Income of Parent(s) (Items 6A, 6B, and 6C)

Report all income received for the 12 month period and for the calendar month immediately preceding the date of completing this form, and the sources of income.

The term "income" means payments and benefits received from sources such as:

- Wages or salary (before any deductions) earned by all members of the parent(s) household, including minors
- Actual contributions to the family by adult members outside of the household
- Social Security benefits, retirement pay, allotments, and family allowances
- Pension, compensation or insurance benefits (other than those received from the Department of Veterans Affairs)
- Interest and dividends
- Rents, property, business, and farm operations

When reporting net income for a business, farm, etc. attach a separate sheet showing gross income and itemized expenses. Net income is gross income less the expenses of operating a rental property or a business or farm. Gross income includes both receipts in cash and the market value of goods or services received in lieu of cash. Expenses include cost of goods sold (for businesses), normal repairs, taxes, salary or wages of employees, insurance, interest on business debts (but not payment of principal), supplies purchased, and other similar expenses.

Expenses of Parent(s) (Items 7A, 7B, 7C and 8)
