The screenshot shows the USDA Food and Nutrition Service website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, About FSP, What's New, Help, Contact Us, and En Español. Below this is a search bar with a 'Go' button and options to search all USDA or search tips. A sidebar on the left titled 'Browse by Subject' lists various categories such as Disaster Assistance, Employment & Training, Grants, Info Materials, Nutrition Education, Outreach, Program Data, Program Improvement, Program Policy, Quality Control, Research & Reports, and Topics A to Z. The main content area is titled 'Food Stamp Program' and contains a welcome message: 'Welcome to the Food Stamp Program's Online Store Application. You must first establish an account before you can conduct business with FNS online. This is your permanent account. Keep and protect your User ID and password. If this is the first time you are doing business with FNS online, click the Register button'. A yellow 'Register' button is centered below this text. Below that, it says 'If you already have a USDA eAuthentication account, click the Sign In button:' followed by a yellow 'Sign In' button. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with links for FNS Home, FNCS Home, USDA.gov, FOIA, Accessibility Statement, Privacy Policy, Non-Discrimination Statement, Information Quality, USA.gov, and White House.

Online Application Process:

Carefully review the following steps to complete the application process:

1. Click the link below to review the Acknowledgement Agreement. You must accept this statement in order to move to the next step.
Click here for Acknowledgement Agreement
2. Fill out your online application.
3. View and print a copy of your application to keep for your records.
4. Submit your application online.
5. Mail your supporting documents to USDA's Food and Nutrition Service. Instructions on your supporting documents are provided on-screen after you submit your application.

Note: Your application is not considered complete until you finish all five steps and FNS has received all supporting documentation. You may save your application and return to finish it later for up to 30 days from when you start. FNS deletes all saved applications that are not completed within 30 days.

Time-Saving Tips:

Have the following documents available to save time filling out the application:

- Date the store opened under your ownership.
- Corporate name and address if you are a private or public corporation.
- Home address, social security number, and date of birth for all owners, partners, corporate officers, and spouses in community property states.
- Actual sales data from your most recent IRS business tax return if you have been open more than one year. If not, be prepared to estimate sales.
- Know the percentage of your sales from staple foods, snack or accessory foods, and all other non-food items you sell.
- Store hours of operation.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT - Section 9 of the Food Stamp Act of 1977, 7 U.S.C. 2018, authorizes collection of the information on this application.

- Information is collected primarily for use by the Food and Nutrition Service in the administration of the Food Stamp Program;
- Additional disclosure of this information may be made to other Food and Nutrition Service programs and to other Federal, State or local agencies and investigative authorities when the Food Stamp Program becomes aware of a violation or possible violation of the Food Stamp Act, as explained in the next section called "Use and Disclosure";
- Section 278.1(b) of the Food Stamp Program regulations provides for the collection of the owners' Social Security Number (SSN), Employee Identification Number (EIN) and tax information;
- The use and disclosure of SSNs and EINs obtained by applicants is covered in the Social Security Act and the Internal Revenue Code. In accordance with the Social Security Act and the Internal Revenue Code, applicant social security numbers and employer identification numbers may be disclosed only to other Federal agencies authorized to have access to social security numbers and employer identification numbers and maintain these numbers in their files, and only when the Secretary of Agriculture determines that disclosure would assist in verifying and matching such information against information maintained by such other agency [42 U.S.C. 405 (c)(2)(C)(ii); 26 U.S.C. 6109(f)];
- Furnishing the information on this form, including your SSN and EIN, is voluntary but failure to do so will result in denial of this application;
- The Food and Nutrition Service may provide you with an additional statement reflecting any additional uses of the information furnished on this form.

USE AND DISCLOSURE - We may use the information you give us in the following ways;

- We may disclose information to the Department of Justice (DOJ), a court or other tribunal, or another party before such tribunal when the USDA is involved in a lawsuit or has an interest in litigation and it has been determined that the use of such information is relevant and necessary and the disclosure is compatible with the purpose for which the information was collected;
- In the event that the information in our system indicates a violation of the Food Stamp Act or any other Federal or State law whether civil or criminal or regulatory in nature, we may disclose the information you give us to the appropriate agency, whether Federal or State, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto;
- We may use your information, including SSNs and EINs, to collect and report on delinquent debt and may disclose the information to other Federal and State agencies, as well as private collection agencies, for purposes of claims collection actions including, but not limited to, the Treasury Department for administrative or tax offset and referral to the Department of Justice for litigation. (Note: SSNs and EINs will only be disclosed to Federal agencies authorized to possess such information);
- We may disclose your information to other Federal and State agencies to verify the information, and to assist in the administration and enforcement of the Food Stamp Act as well as other Federal and State laws. (Note: SSNs and EINs will only be disclosed to Federal agencies authorized to possess such information);
- We may disclose information to other Federal and State agencies to respond to specific requests from such Federal and State agencies for the purpose of administering the Food Stamp Act as well as other Federal and State laws;
- We may disclose information to other Federal and State agencies for the purpose of conducting computer matching programs; We may disclose information to private entities having contractual agreements with us for designing, developing, and operating our systems, and for verification and computer matching purposes;
- We may disclose information to State agencies that administer the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), authorized under section 17 of the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 for purposes of administering that Act and the regulations issued under that Act;
- We may disclose information to the public when a retailer has been disqualified or otherwise sanctioned for violations of the Program after the time for administrative and judicial appeals has expired. This information is limited to the name and address of the store, the owner(s) name(s) and information about the sanction itself. The purpose of such disclosure is to assist in the administration and enforcement of the Food Stamp Act and Food Stamp Program regulations.

PENALTY WARNING STATEMENT - The Food and Nutrition Service can deny or withdraw your approval to accept food stamp benefits if you provide false information or try to hide information we ask you to give us. In addition, if false information is provided or information is hidden from the Food and Nutrition Service, the owners of the firm may be liable for a $10,000 fine or imprisoned for as long as five years, or both (7 U.S.C. 2024(f) and 18 U.S.C. 1001).

PAPERWORK REDUCTION NOTICE

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 10 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate (0584-0008) or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service, Office of Research, Nutrition and Analysis, 3101 Park Center Dr., Alexandria, VA 22302. Do not return the completed form to this address.

To file a complaint of Discrimination, write to USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326W Whitten Building, 1400 Independence Ave, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410. Do not send applications to this address.
