GETTING STARTED

Getting Started

The Consular Electronic Application Center will permit applicants to complete the application without an account; however no partially completed applications will be stored online. If you need to quit before you have completed the application, click the red "Save" button at the bottom of the page you wish to exit from and choose the "Export File" option. You will be prompted to designate a place to save the file on your computer. When you return to the Consular Electronic Application Center, you will be able to import (or upload) the file from the Getting Started page to continue the application process at the point where you exited.

To continue the A/G/NATO Visa Application process:

- Either Import a previous application
- Or, click the 'Next: Personal' button below to begin entering information

CONFIRM PHOTO - UPLOAD ERROR

At the bottom of the main content area, there is a navigation bar with three buttons: 'Back: Upload Photo', 'Save', and 'Next: Review'.

The footer contains a small circular logo with the letter 'C' and the following text: 'This site is managed by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State. Sign and Submit

Read the following information carefully before dating, electronically signing, and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to submit. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete, as additional information may be needed after Department of State personnel have reviewed the application.

By clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are electronically signing the application. By electronically signing this document you are certifying that you have read, and understood the questions set forth in this application and the answers that you have furnished on this form are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. If this application has been prepared by another on your behalf by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that someone has read all the questions set forth in the application to you and that you understood the questions and that all the answers submitted on your behalf are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. In either case, a self-prepared application or an application prepared by another, by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that you understand any false or misleading statement may result in permanent refusal of a visa or denial of entry to the United States. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1746 all declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury.

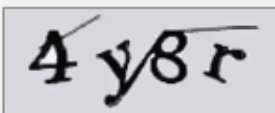

Do not click "Sign and Submit" unless you are willing to certify the above. Once you have clicked "Sign and Submit" you will be unable to make changes to the application. Only click the button below if you have reviewed the information and it is correct.

Notice 22 C.F.R.6 41.103 requires an applicant to sign and submit his or her own nonimmigrant visa application unless otherwise exempt. Although the applicant may receive assistance from a third party in preparing the application, the applicant is required to click the "sign and submit" button at the end of the application. The applicant's failure to sign the application may result in a termination of the application.

SAVE DURING APPLICATION PROCESS

The main content area is titled "Domestic A/G/NATO Form" and "Save Application". Under "Export Application", the text reads: "You have selected to save your application. To do this, click the Export the Application option below. The system will prompt you to identify a place on your computer to save the application file. When you wish to return to the Electronic Application Center, simply import the file using the link provided on the Getting Started page and follow the instructions. To continue, choose one of the following:"

- Click here to Export the Application
- Or, click the red "Continue Application" button below to return to the Application without Exporting

At the bottom of the main content area, there are two buttons: a red "Save" button with a floppy disk icon and a red "Continue Application" button with a right-pointing arrow.

On the left side, there is a vertical navigation menu with the following items: "Getting Started", "Personal", "Tour and Embassy", "Address and Phone" (with a right-pointing arrow), "Passport", and "PID".

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with a circular logo containing the letter "C" and the text: "This site is managed by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State. External links to other Internet sites should not be constituted as an endorsement of the views contained therein. Copyright information Disclaimers Paperwork Reduction Act".

THANK YOU

The screenshot shows the top of a web page with a dark blue header. On the left is the U.S. Department of State seal, and to its right is the text "U.S. DEPARTMENT of STATE" and "CONSULAR ELECTRONIC APPLICATION CENTER". In the top right corner of the header is a "Contact Us" link. Below the header, the page title "Domestic A/G/NATO Form" is displayed in red. The main content area features a large "Thank You" heading in blue. Below this, a message states: "You have successfully completed the application process for your Domestic A/G/NATO Visa. You may start another application, or create a family application." Two blue buttons are positioned below the message: "Start Another Application" and "Create a Family Application". At the bottom of the page, there is a small circular logo with a 'C' and a star, followed by a disclaimer: "This site is managed by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State. External links to other Internet sites should not be constituted as an endorsement of the views contained therein." Below the disclaimer are three links: "Copyright information", "Disclaimers", and "Paperwork Reduction Act".
