Biometrics (e.g., Fingerprints and Photographs)  Identity, background and security checks are required on your alien relative before he or she may be granted derivative asylum or refugee status. For example, USCIS must check the records of the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and other information, including all relevant databases of the U. S. Government before asylum may be granted to your relative. To facilitate these checks, USCIS may require your alien relative to provide biometrics. Where applicable, this means that your relative must be fingerprinted, if age 14 or

		over, and photographed. Your alien relative will be given instructions on how to complete this requirement. If your alien relative is living in the United States and is subject to biometrics collection, he or she will be notified, in writing, of the appointment time and the location of the Application Support Center (ASC) or the designated Law Enforcement Agency where he or she must go to be fingerprinted and photographed. If your relative is living outside of the United States, he or she will be given instructions, if applicable, for fingerprinting and photographs by DHS, the Department of State (DOS) or Overseas Processing Entities (OPEs) (i.e., organizations who assist the U.S. government). Your relative’s unexcused failure to appear for a scheduled appointment or to provide biometrics where required, including fingerprints and photographs, or to provide other biographical information within the time allowed, may result in the denial of this I-730 petition.

A written notice of the date, time, and place (address) of the scheduled interview will be sent to your relative. (In addition to your alien relative, you, the petitioner, may be asked to appear for an interview.) See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a) (9) (“[A] petitioner ... [or] a beneficiary ... may be required to appear ... for an interview.”). Your alien relative generally will be required to appear at an ASC for biometrics collection before the interview will take place (see section 8). USCIS suggests that your alien relative bring a copy of your Form I-730, Refugee/Asylee Relative Petition, to the interview. An asylum officer will interview your alien relative under oath and make a determination concerning your petition. Your alien relative may receive notification of the decision in the case on the day of the interview, or he or she will, in some cases, be notified of the decision on a date after the interview. Your alien relative has the right to legal representation at the interview, at no cost to the United States

Your alien relative also may bring witnesses to the interview to testify on his or her behalf. If your alien relative, who resides in the United States, is unable to proceed with the interview in fluent English and you are applying for derivative asylum status for your relative, he or she must provide at no expense to USCIS a competent interpreter fluent in both English and a language that your alien relative speaks fluently. See (8 C.F.R. 208.9(g)). The interpreter must be at least 18 years of age. The following persons cannot serve as the interpreter: your or your alien relative's attorney or representative of record; a witness testifying on your alien relative's behalf at the interview; or a representative or employee of your country. Quality interpretation may be crucial to your petition. Such assistance must be obtained, at your expense, prior to the interview. Failure without good cause to bring a competent interpreter to the interview may be considered an unexcused failure to appear for the interview. Your alien relative may bring to the interview any additional available items in support of the petition that have not already been submitted with your petition.
