Instructions

1. Insured Shipments. All Outstanding insured shipments made to the buyer must be reported and included with this claim whether or not a shipment is presently eligible for coverage. For example, if there are two insured invoices outstanding to a buyer and only one is eligible for claim filing, the second invoice should be included as a part of this claim filing. Interest calculations reflecting the dollar amount of the contract interest due for each invoice, when applicable, must be included in the chart below. Please note that you will need to MAIL to Ex-Im bank the invoice, bill of lading, debt instruments and other related documents, grouped for each shipment. The bill of lading is the date of shipment for purposes of the schedule.

2. Applicable Interest. Not all Short Term, Multi-Buyer insurance allows for the collection of interest. Please answer these questions to determine whether interest applies:

Are you claiming ordinary or past due interest? Yes No

You have answered "No" to the question above. You are not entitled to collect interest on past-due payments this claim. Please enter "0%" under the "Interest if Applicable" column.
