Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. § 552a)

Any person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has in his or her file when that file is retrieved by individual identifiers, such as name or social security number. SBA will protect an individual's personal information to the extent permitted by law, including the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. However, as a routine matter information collected may be disclosed as follows: (a) to the news media for public disclosure of the name, address, and biography of award recipients; (b) to communicate with State and local governments about the status of a particular nominee; (c) to an individual nominee's Congressional office when that office is inquiring on the individual's behalf; (d) to Agency volunteers, interns, judges, experts and contractors who need access to the records in order to perform an award related activity; and (e) to the Department of Justice (DOJ); the court, adjudicative body, or a dispute resolution body when any of the following is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation:

- (1) The agency or any of its components;
- (2) An agency employee in his or her official capacity;
- (3) An agency employee in his or her individual capacity where DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or
- (4) The United States Government, where the agency determines that litigation is likely to affect the agency or any of its components.

Before making any disclosures SBA must determine that the use of the records is relevant and necessary to the litigation, and disclosure of the records is for a purpose that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

Additional information regarding the retention and disclosure of this collection of information is listed in the systems of record notice published in the Federal Register at 69 FR 58597,58624(9/30/2004).
