Draft FFRDC Question on Character of Work

2. What percentage of your total and federal R&D expenditures are (a) basic research, (b) applied research, and (c) development? Please note that information received from institutions on basic research, applied research, and development is confidential and will not be published or released for individual FFRDCs.

racter of work		Total	Federal increase of primary ai knowledge	arch – is research directed toward an f knowledge; it is research where the m of the investigator is a fuller e or understanding of the subject under er than a specific application thereof.	%	%
	esearch – is research conducted to gain edge or understanding to meet a specific, l need.	%	% knowledge directed to devices, sy	ent — is the systematic use of the e or understanding gained from research ward the production of useful materials, estems, or methods, including the design opment of prototypes and processes.	%	%
		100%	100%