

Questions Contained in the 2007 ACS Content Test Content Followup (CFU) CATI Instrument

Locating an eligible respondent and introducing the survey:

Outgoing call:

Q. This is (your name) of the US Census Bureau. Have I reached (xxx) xxx-xxxx?

Q. May I speak to NAME<sup>1</sup>? (If NAME is available, go to the introduction. On the first call, NAME is the original mail, CATI, or CAPI respondent, and if that person cannot be reached but will be available later, the interviewer cannot interview somebody else in the household.)

Q. May I speak to someone at least 15 years old who is knowledgeable about the household at ADDRESS and the people in that household?

Introduction once eligible respondent is located (outgoing or incoming call):

Q. [Fill 1: This call is about a Census Bureau survey you or someone in your household recently completed/Thank you for returning our call. My name is ... from the U.S. Census Bureau..] [Fill 2: First we'd like to thank you for completing the questionnaire. I'm calling today to collect some additional information./We have completed part of an interview for this household and would like to finish it now.]

My supervisor is working with me today and may listen in to evaluate my performance.

Within this interview I may be asking a few questions which sound very similar. This is necessary so we can determine which question version works the best.

(Interviewer reads this statement if this is not original mail, CATI, or CAPI respondent): I am required by law to tell you that this survey is authorized by Title 13, Sections 141, 193, and 221 of the United States Code. The average interview takes about 10 to 15 minutes. This survey is mandatory and your cooperation is very important. All the information you provide will be remain completely confidential.

[NOTE: For Fill 1, the first part of the fill (before the slash) appears on the screen. If this is an incoming call from the respondent in response to us leaving our number on their answering machine, the second part of the fill appears instead. For Fill 2, the first part appears if this is a new CFU interview; the second part if this is the resumption of a partial CFU interview.]

Housing section:

Building Type:

Q. Now I'd like to ask questions about ADDRESS. Which best describes this building? Is it a mobile home, single family house, building with two or more apartments, boat, RV or van?
