

[Draft for mail merge and auto-penning]

March XX , 2005

Dear Jane Doe:

In 2003, you attended one of the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) Summits sponsored by the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD) and hosted by the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. (AKA), the National Coalition of 100 Black Women (NCBW), and the Women in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (WIN). A goal of these summits was to encourage you, the participants, to foster SIDS education activities in your communities. Enough time has elapsed for us to now look back and see what we have accomplished in the two years since the summit meetings. The sponsors and hosts of the summit meetings are interested in understanding how helpful these meetings were in getting the SIDS risk reduction messages into African American communities. By understanding the outcomes of these summit meetings, the NICHD can better plan future events and activities.

To help the NICHD assess the outcomes from the summit meetings, we are asking all participants to fill out a short survey being conducted by IQ Solutions. We would like to know more about any related community activities that you personally conducted or any community activities in which you participated since attending the summit.

Enclosed is a copy of the brief survey. We would appreciate it if you could please take a few minutes to answer the questions and return the survey to us by [INSERT DATE]in the postage paid envelope that has been provided. All personal information and any responses concerning the feedback on the summits will be kept completely confidential and analyzed at the aggregate level. If you have conducted any SIDS related activities and would like to tell us more about them, there is a place on the survey to provide your name and telephone number so that an IQ Solutions staff member can contact you to talk about them.

Please feel free to call Ms. Jane Manahan at (301) 657-3077, ext. 305 if you have any questions about the survey. We appreciate your help in making our outreach efforts to reduce the risk of SIDS as effective as possible. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Yvonne T. Maddox, Ph.D.
Deputy Director

Interview Protocol for Follow-up Interviews (Post Survey)

Hello, my name is _____. I am calling from a research and evaluation firm called IQ Solutions in the Washington DC area. We have been hired by the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD) to conduct an evaluation on the SIDS Summits co-sponsored by the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD), the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. (AKA), the National Coalition of 100 Black Women (NCBW) and the Women in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (WIN).

When we spoke earlier, you said that this would be a good time to speak with you about the SIDS-related activities you have been involved in since the SIDS summits– Is this still a good time for you? [If YES, proceed --- If NO, ask them when they have the time and reschedule the interview]

Please remember, anything you say here will be kept in the strictest of confidence – We will not use your name in the report.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes, including the time for reviewing instructions. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: NIH, Project Clearance Branch, 6705 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7974, Bethesda, MD 20892-7974, ATTN: PRA (0925-0532)

Let me first thank you for your help in this study – Your input is greatly appreciated.

To begin, we would like you to think back to the SIDS summit held in 2003. Which summit did you attend?

- _____ Los Angeles, CA
- _____ Tuskegee, AL
- _____ Detroit, MI

What was the best thing about the summit?

Was there anything you might change about the summit?

We are very interested in hearing about any of your SIDS-related activities since the summit. Can you please tell us about these activities?

Probes

How many people attended this activity? _____

What kinds of people attended your activity?

Where was this activity held?

How did you sponsor this activity?

How did people hear about your activity?

How did you advertise your activity?

Did you use the resource kit?

No _____

Yes _____ If yes, how did you use the resource kit?

What other materials did you use? -

Who helped you with your activity?

Did any of the partner organizations participate in your activity?

Are you planning any more SIDS-related activities? If so, what are they?

Has your activity prompted others to involve themselves in SIDS-related activities? If so, can you please tell us about them?

[END PROBE]

Is there anything else about your SIDS-related activity or the summits themselves that you would like to tell us about that we haven't discussed?

Once again _____ [insert name], we want to thank you for taking this time to help us – We really appreciate the information you have given us and want to assure you that your input is most valuable. If you have any questions, my name once again is _____ and my telephone number is _____
