Your response to the following questions will be used to help establish that the child-in-care requirement for mother's and father's benefits and for benefits for a spouse under age 62 is met. Your response to these questions is voluntary, however, the Social Security Administration (SSA) cannot review the decision on this claim unless the information is furnished. While the information you furnish on this form would almost never be used for any purpose other than making a determination about your claim, such information may be disclosed by SSA as generally permitted under the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. This includes using the information as necessary for administrative purposes or as authorized by routine uses in the applicable Privacy Act system of records. For example, the information may be used to assist Social Security in establishing the right of an individual to Social Security benefits. In addition, SSA may disclose information to other agencies, such as the Government Accountability Office or to the Department of the Census to comply with Federal laws requiring or permitting the release of information from our records. SSA may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matched programs compare SSA records with those of other Federal, State or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows SSA to do this even if you do not agree to it. Explanations about possible reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available upon request from any Social Security office.
