Justification:

USCIS is amending the Form I-130 to require petitioners filing a stand-alone I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, on behalf of their spouse and/or family members to submit documentation and proper fees to the appropriate location that coincides with the State in which the petitioner resides. The filing address change is necessary to ensure that the petition is filed with the correct location. In addition to amending the filing instructions, minor changes are needed to clarify for petitioners the legal and documentary requirements for filing Form I-130. This, in turn, will facilitate acceptance and adjudication of the petition in accordance with prescribed legal standards.
