Collaboration Opportunities

HSARPA SBIR is seeking to foster collaborative research and business opportunities to assist SBIR small businesses partner with strategic partners and/or researchers for collaboration opportunities. Investigators who have complementary research interests can capitalize on those mutual interests to conduct collaborative research under a joint SBIR effort. Investigators can also leverage their research through partnering with established firms for needed operational and technical support.

Interested investigators or organizations may post their contact information and a link to a relevant website, along with a two-paragraph abstract that consists of (1) a technical description of the project and its objectives and (2) a description of the proposed collaborative activity. The abstract should be informative to other persons working in the same technical area or related fields, and it should be understandable to scientifically or technically literate lay readers.

DHS neither constitutes nor endorses the posted abstracts. This service is provided solely to assist small businesses professionally benefit from collaborative opportunities. Please report any inappropriate postings to helpdesk@hsarpasbir.com.
