Unemployment Application

Introduction Page

Welcome to the Railroad Retirement Board's Online Unemployment Benefit Application.

If you filed an application for unemployment benefits since July 1, you do not need to file another application to obtain a claim. Just telephone your RRB district office to request a claim form. To obtain the telephone number of the district office serving your area, click here.

If you want your first unemployment claim to begin more than two weeks in the future, you must file a paper Form UI-1 Application for Unemployment Benefits.

Only residents of the United States can use this on-line application. If you live outside the United States, print and complete an application, and mail it to your nearest RRB district office.

Please read the Booklet UB-10, Unemployment Benefits for Railroad Employees or Booklet UB-10s, Beneficios de Desempleo para Empleados Ferroviarios, before starting your application.

You will need the following information in order to complete your application. We suggest you gather it before you start. If for any reason you do not complete the unemployment application, your partially completed application will be saved for 30 days.

Information that identifies you:

- Address.
- Home and Work telephone numbers.

Your Employment History:

- Date(s) you last worked for your last employer and non-railroad employer, if any.
- Title of your last railroad job and non-railroad job, if any.

Direct Deposit Information:

- Your Financial Institution's Routing Transit Number.
- Name of your Financial Institution.
- Your checking or savings account number.

An application for unemployment benefits must be filed within 30 days of the first day for which you wish to claim unemployment benefits.

If you tried to file your application earlier but were prevented from doing so by circumstances beyond your control, your application may be considered as filed on time.

An employee's lack of knowledge about the filing requirements is not considered to be a circumstance beyond his or her control.

Please provide the following information in the space below to explain why you are filing late:

What actions did you take to obtain and complete your application for unemployment benefits? Provide the dates you took these actions.

Provide the names and titles of any persons who helped you complete and file the application.
