On the behalf of all supporters of wildlife, thank you for participating in the HIP waterfowl harvest survey last hunting season. The valuable information you provided helped enable us to estimate the total waterfowl harvest in the U.S.

We are asking for your help again this coming season. Each year, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service also conducts the Waterfowl Parts Collection Survey, in which we ask selected hunters to send us a wing from each duck and the tail feathers and wing tips from each goose that they shoot during the hunting season. Volunteering to send us these parts from ducks and geese you shoot next season will provide us with more critical information.

Biologists will examine your specimens to determine the birds' species, age, and sex. This information is vital for helping us better manage our waterfowl resource. For example, the specimens that hunters contribute will allow us to estimate the number of young-of-the-year birds that were harvested, which tells us how successful the birds were during the nesting season.

If you will be able to send us duck wings and goose tail feathers and wing tips from the birds that you bag, please provide the information requested below and return this letter in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Please return it by July 2 so that we can send your postage-paid wing envelopes in time for the hunting season.

If you have any questions, please call us at 1-800-419-2965 between 7:00am – 4:00pm EST. Again, thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
Kenneth D. Richkus
Acting Chief, Branch of Harvest Surveys
