Evaluation Process – These are standard requirements that HUD will expect every program manager receiving a grant to do as part of their project management.

- An evaluation process will be part of the on-going management of the program.
- Comparisons will be made between projected and actual numbers for both outputs and outcomes.
- Deviations from projected outputs and outcomes will be documented and explained.
- Analysis of data to determine the relationship of outputs to outcomes; what outputs produce which outcomes.

HUD Will Use The Following Management Questions To Evaluate Your Program

1. How many clients were served during the period of performance?
2. Of those served how many resulted in cases?
3. How many cases were resolved?
4. How many cases were resolved to the benefit of the client?
5. How many zoning complaints were resolved in favor of the client?
6. How many estimated persons were favorably impacted by zoning changes?
7. How many persons obtained safe affordable housing?
8. How many persons retained safe affordable housing?
9. What was the dollar value of settlements?
10. What was the dollar value of purchased homes?
11. What was the dollar value of rental properties obtained?
12. How many new fair housing clients were served?
13. How many new fair housing clients were served as a result of education and outreach efforts?
14. What were the top three outreach and education efforts that resulted in new clients to your program, e.g., direct mailings to underserved households, distribution of publications, attendance at a meeting or presentation, attendance at an educational program.
15. How many disability-related cases were resolved to the benefit of the client?
16. How many disability-related zoning cases were resolved in favor of the client?
17. How many persons with disability obtained affordable housing?
18. How many persons with disability retained affordable housing?
19. What was the average amount of allocated PEI funding used per complaint referred to FHIP's and HUD?

Carter-Richmond Methodology

The above Management Questions developed for your program are based on the Carter-Richmond Methodology¹. A description of the Carter-Richmond Methodology appears in the General Section of the NOFA.
