Routine HIV Testing in Emergency Departments

Recruitment Screener

Introduction

Hello, my name is _____ and I'm from (name of company). We are calling on behalf of RTI International, a non-profit research organization, and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. We are not selling or promoting any product. We are calling to recruit emergency medicine physicians to take part in a research study about HIV testing and prevention.

The purpose of the research is to learn physicians' thoughts on HIV testing in emergency medicine and involves participating in an interview on the subject of HIV testing.

To see if you are eligible for this study, I need to ask you some questions. If you are eligible and choose to be in the study, all of your comments will be kept private. In appreciation for your participation, you will be reimbursed for your time, effort, and travel expenses.

My questions will only take a few minutes. May I proceed?

Statement of burden for study screening instruments

Public reporting burden of this collection of information is estimated to average 10 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to CDC/ATSDR Reports Clearance Officer; 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS D-74, Atlanta, Georgia 30333; ATTN: PRA (0920-XXXX)

Invitation:

Thank you for answering all of my questions. As I mentioned earlier, we are conducting a research study on behalf of the CDC regarding HIV testing and prevention and would like to hear your professional views. In order to hear them first-hand, we would like to invite you to take part in an informal, personal interview. The interviews are being scheduled on [DAYS/DATE TBD] at a time that would be convenient for you [GIVE AVAILABLE TIMES]. The discussion will last about 1 hour and you may find the discussion interesting and informative. No one will attempt to sell you anything and no one will call on you for other studies as a result of your participation in this study. To help repay you for your time, effort, and travel, you will receive $200 at the time of the interview. This is an important research effort and we hope that you will be part of it. We can only invite a few physicians in your area to take part. Can we schedule your attendance?

Closing for Ineligible Participants:

Thank you for answering all of my questions. You are not eligible to be in this study because... We value your interest in this research study. Thank you for being willing to help us.

Information Sheet

We are asking for your contact information only for the purpose of sending you a reminder letter and giving you a call to remind you of your interview. We will destroy all contact information upon conclusion of the interviews.
