OMB # 1545-1349

Hello, my name is _____. I am calling on behalf of IFC Macro, a research and consulting firm in the Washington DC area. We are working with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to obtain feedback on a revised form they are developing. We are seeking participants for a focus group we are holding in [insert city].

IF ASKED: (EACH INTERVIEWER WILL HAVE THIS INFORMATION)

If respondents ask how their name was obtained, tell them their phone number was randomly selected from a list of individuals in the local calling area. If respondents are concerned about participating, tell them that our contract with the IRS specifically prohibits me from revealing their name or any information about them to the IRS or anyone else. Participation in this focus group will not affect your taxes or filing status.

This project has been approved by the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The OMB Clearance Number is 1545-1349. If you like, I can give you a name and address where you can send comments and questions regarding these time estimates or suggestions for making this process simpler.

Focus Group Moderator's Guide

Schedule L

Focus Groups

INTRODUCTION

Introduction of the moderator.

Explanation of the nature of the general study—to provide input on the revised Schedule L, Hope and Lifetime Learning Credits which will be attached to Forms 1040 and 1040A.

Explanation of the purpose of the focus group approach—to explore in a semi-structured manner what people think about the issues.

- The group discussion of the issues often generates deeper insights than individual one-on-one interviews.
- A topic oriented discussion of issues allows the participants to identify the important dimensions that might be lost in a structured interview setting.
- It's interactive so that the participants can talk back to us—ask what we mean, tell us when a question doesn't make any sense, or means different things to different people.

BASIC GROUND RULES:

- Everything that you say here will be kept strictly Private. We will use first names only and names will not be used in the report. You will remain anonymous to the IRS and are free to tell me what you think.
- For the IRS to speak with the public, we are required to have approval from the Office of Management and Budget. Their approval number for this project is 1545-1349. Also, if you have any comments regarding the time estimates associated with this study or suggestions on making this process simpler, please write to the: IRS Tax Products Coordinating Committee, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW, IR-6526, Washington, DC 20224.

- We are audio-taping the meeting for use in preparing a report about findings. Your name will not be used in the report; but the tapes will help me remember the valuable input you give me to share with the Service. [Note to moderator: if anyone voices concern, also mention that the note taker cannot write as fast as participant's speak nor can you remember everything after traveling to the three different cities over several months.]
- Because we are taping this meeting, I ask that you speak loudly and clearly. If I think you are speaking too softly to be heard on the tape, I will ask you to speak up.
- Please speak just one at a time so everyone has a chance to participate.
- Don't engage in side conversations—we need for everyone to hear what the others are saying and for everything that's said to be heard easily on the tape.
- Sometimes I'll go around the table and ask everyone for their input. At other times, I will just throw a topic open for general discussion.
- Participation—we need to get a full range of opinions, and we need everyone's participation. You are here to talk. I am here to listen. I am not an expert in tax law so I cannot answer questions that involve tax law represented in Schedule L.
- No evaluation—there are no right and wrong answers. We expect differences in how people see things, and we need to know about these differences.
- Feel free to disagree or question each other. The purpose of a group session is that we learn things in group interchanges that we don't get out of one-on-one discussions. If someone says something you disagree with, please let us know.
- If you have a cell phone, please turn it off, or set it to vibrate. We don't want the group to be disturbed and we also need your full attention during the session.
- The session will last about 2 hours.

INTRODUCTION OF PARTICIPANTS

Let's go around the table. Please introduce yourself (first name only, please) and tell us how you file your tax reruns (e-file, mail, etc.).

Scenarios and Discussion

Now let's take a look at this scenario. Distribute copies of the scenario.

Instructions to Moderator:

Read scenario to participants. Please point out that they are the taxpayer and should complete the schedule the same they would if they were the taxpayer.

Please complete the entries on Schedule L using the information provided in this scenario. Be sure to use the instructions provided to complete the schedule. You will have about 20-25 minutes to complete the scenario.

Before you begin the scenario, please take a look at Schedule L. While you are completing the Schedule consider the look, layout, and language. We will discuss these items after you complete the scenario.

Ask participants to put down their pencils once they have completed the schedule. Please collect all pencils before reading the answers to the scenario.

1. What do you think about the general look and layout of Schedule L?
Probe: Concerns and comments about print size, font type, layout, etc.
2. What did you think of the wording of Schedule L?
 - a. Where there any lines that gave you difficulties?
 - b. If yes, can you please reword the line(s) so that it would be clearer?
3. Did you experience any difficulty in completing Schedule L using the scenario? If so, please explain the difficulties you had.
4. Did you use the instructions to complete the Schedule?
 - a. If so, what sections of the instructions did you use?
5. Were any of the instructions difficult to understand or needed to be reworded?

Probe: Please give suggestions on how to reword the instructions to make them more understandable.

6. Did the instructions provide all the information you needed to complete the schedule?
7. Is there anything else you needed in the instructions to complete the schedule?
8. Do you have any other suggestions for improving the Schedule L or instructions?

At the end of the session please read the answer key to the participants. Please make sure they do not change their answers.

IV. False close

Explain that participants can discuss among themselves the answers while you check in with the observers to see if they have any addition questions they would like you to ask.

V. Closing

Thinking about our discussion tonight, is there anything else you would like to share regarding the forms and instructions we looked at today.

Thank you very much for coming this evening, and for sharing your ideas with us —we really appreciate your time.
