Form Approved
OMB No. 1845-0001
App. Exp. 06/30/08

To begin a FAFSA4caster, continue working on a saved FAFSA4caster, or retrieve a submitted FAFSA4caster, we need you to provide the information below. You should provide your Social Security Number (SSN) and first and last name exactly as they appear on your Social Security Card. This information will be used to verify your identity with the Social Security Administration (SSA). It is necessary for us to complete this process in order to generate your Federal Student Aid PIN and Renewal Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), which you will need when you officially apply for federal student aid. For further information about how your data is used, you can select the Privacy link below.

If you enter your SSN incorrectly on your FAFSA4caster you will not be able to correct it and you will receive a notification that your data did not match with SSA.

IMPORTANT: Create a password that is easy for you to remember. Your password is used to secure your data and allow you to retrieve your saved or submitted FAFSA4caster. If you forget your password there is no way to access your data. You will have to begin a new FAFSA4caster. Here are some helpful tips to use when creating your password:

- Make your password 4 to 8 characters long
- Enter the 4 to 8 characters in capital and lower case letters. It's important to remember exactly how you enter the characters. For example, "Student2" is a different password than "student2"
- Enter a password that is easy for you to remember but hard for others to guess. Avoid using personal information such as your first name, last name, or date of birth. Also, avoid using simple passwords such as "1234" or "abcd"

NOTE: While using FAFSA4caster, if there is no activity by your keyboard or mouse for 30 minutes your session will expire. If your session expires, all of the information you entered will be saved. You can access your saved FAFSA4caster by returning to this login page and entering the information requested below. Here is where remembering your password is extremely important to retrieve your saved FAFSA4caster.

We estimate that it will take you less than half an hour to complete a FAFSA4caster.

What type of income tax return did the student file or will the student file for 2006 (question 33)?

If the student has filed or will file a 1040, was he/she eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ (question 34)?

Select Yes if the student (and his/her spouse) filed or will file a 1040 but was eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ.

In general, the student is eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ if he or she:

- Makes less than $100,000 per year,
- Does not itemize deductions,
- Does not receive income from his/her own business or farm,
- Does not receive self-employment income or alimony,
- Is not required to file Schedule D for capital gains.

The student is not eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ if he or she:

- Makes $100,000 or more per year
- Itemizes deductions
- Receives income from his/her own business or farm
- Receives self-employment income or alimony
- Is required to file Schedule D for capital gains.

If the student filed a 1040 to claim Hope or Lifetime Learning credits, and he/she would have otherwise been eligible for a 1040A or 1040EZ, you should answer "Yes" to this question.

Select No if the student (and his/her spouse) filed or will file a 1040 and was not eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ.

Select Don't Know if the student (and his/her spouse) filed or will file a 1040 and do not know whether he/she is eligible to file a 1040A or 1040EZ.

PLEASE READ BEFORE PROCEEDING

FAFSA4caster has been provided to give students and parents an early estimate of their eligibility for federal student aid. This tool is only an early estimate of your eligibility based on the information you entered into FAFSA4caster. It is not the actual application that is processed to award aid and it is not a guarantee of aid. You must remember to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible on or after January 1 of the year you plan to attend a college. While we cannot guarantee that your eligibility will be the same when you actually attend college, it is likely that it will be very similar to what it is now.

Filling Out a FAFSA4caster

Congratulations, FELIX!

FAFSA4caster has successfully calculated the information you submitted.

Below you will see an estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC). The EFC is not the amount of money that your family must provide. Rather, you should think of the EFC as an index that colleges use to determine how much financial aid you would receive if you were to attend their school. When you officially apply for financial aid, the colleges you list on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) will determine your eligibility and then send you award information that identifies the aid they have determined you may receive. This award information will vary from college to college because the cost of attending each is different.

Your estimated EFC is 0. If you attend college full-time, current Federal Pell Grant requirements indicate that you would likely be eligible to receive up to $4,310 through the Federal Pell Grant Program. A Pell Grant does not have to be repaid - it is free money provided by the Federal government to students that are eligible.

Your financial aid award is also likely to include additional federal student aid like other grants, low-interest student loans, and work-study opportunities. If you attend college full-time, you can expect to qualify for at least $3,500 in loans or other types of aid, depending on which federal student aid programs your college participates in. You might also be eligible for funds from your state or college. All of this is in addition to any private scholarships you may receive. For additional information about scholarships or other sources of aid visit www.studentaid.gov.

So what happens now?

Click on the Next Steps section on the homepage for additional information.

You may print and keep this page for your records along with the summary page, but please note that the information is an early estimate of your eligibility based on the information you entered into FAFSA4caster. It is not the actual application that is processed to award aid and it is not a guarantee of aid. Don't forget that you must complete a FAFSA as soon as possible on or after January 1 of the year you plan to attend college. While we cannot guarantee that your eligibility will be the same when you actually attend college, it is likely that it will be very similar to what it is now.
