

Instructions for Information from the District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS)

Administrative records will be collected from DCPS and charter school authorizers to obtain baseline information for eligible applicants, as well as for the non-applicants. Information includes baseline achievement test scores and demographic information such as race/ethnicity and grade. We obtain the information in whatever format is convenient for DCPS.