

Instructions for Program Operator's Records

Information on use of the scholarship by students assigned to the treatment group is obtained from the program operator of the DC Opportunity Scholarship Program. In order to reduce burden, we obtain this information in whatever format is convenient for the program operator.