Specific Instructions

Note: If this form is approved, the waiver that is granted will apply ONLY for those grounds of inadmissibility and those crimes, incidents, events, or conditions that you have included in your application. For this reason, it is important that you disclose all grounds of inadmissibility for which you seek a waiver.

Special Note to K-1 and K-2 Nonimmigrant Visa Applicants

Because you do not yet have the requisite relationship to a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States to qualify for a waiver, you must enter one of the following in Block B:

If you are a fiancé(e) of a citizen: - Complete items B.1., B.2., B.3., and B.5. with information will conditionally approve the waiver application. The condition imposed on the approval of the waiver is that you (or your parent) and the United States citizen who filed the K visa petition, celebrate a bona fide marriage within the statutory timeframe of three (3) months from the day of your (or your parent's) admission. Despite the conditional approval, USCIS may ultimately deny the Form I-601, if you (or your parent) do not marry the U.S. citizen who filed the K visa petition and does not seek and receive permanent residence on the basis of that marriage.

Approved I-360 VAWA Self-Petitioner and His or Her Child(ren) Seeking a Waiver of Inadmissibility Pursuant to Section 212(a)(9)(C) (iii)

The INA provides special forms of relief for an approved VAWA self-petitioner and his or her child(ren) who are applying for adjustment of status or an immigrant visa but who are inadmissible under certain provisions of INA section 212(a)(6)(A)(i), section 212(a)(9)(B)(i), or section 212(a)(9)(C)(i). You should only file this Form I-601 to seek a waiver of inadmissibility under INA section 212(a)(9)(C)(i); you do not need to file this form I-601 if you are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(6)(A)(i) or 212(a)(9)(B)(i), as explained in the "Note" below.

		If you are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(9)(C)(i): INA section 212(a)(9)(C)(i) makes inadmissible an alien who is unlawfully present for more than one (1) year, in the aggregate, or who has been ordered removed, and subsequently enters or attempts to reenter without being admitted. USCIS has discretion to waive this ground of inadmissibility under INA section 212(a)(9)(C)(iii) for an approved VAWA self-petitioner, and his or her child(ren), if the VAWA self-petitioner can establish a "connection" between the battery or extreme cruelty that is the basis for the VAWA claim, the unlawful presence and departure, or the removal, and his or her subsequent unlawful entry or attempted reentry into the United States. If you seek such a waiver, complete Form I-601 and attach evidence that shows the connection between the battery or extreme cruelty that is the basis for your VAWA claim, the unlawful presence and your departure, or your removal from the United States, and your unlawful entry or attempted reentry into the United States. Note: You do not need to file Form I-601 if you are an approved VAWA self-petitioner and his or her child(ren) seeking adjustment of status, and if you are inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(6)(A)(i)(Presence in the United States without admission or parole, or arrival in the United States other than at an open port of entry) or INA section 212(a)(9)(B)(Three-year

What Evidence Should Be Submitted With The Application?

Please pay close attention to the qualifying family relationship that you have to establish if you apply for a hardship waiver. While the relationships appear to be similar, the various waiver provisions contain different qualifying family relationships.

Also, please pay close attention to the requirements that need to be established to have a particular ground of inadmissibility waived, as listed in the "Specific Instructions."

In support of your application, you should provide evidence that establishes why you may qualify for a waiver of inadmissibility. Depending on the type of waiver, this information and evidence may include but is not limited to:

- A. Affidavits from you or other individuals in support of your application;
- B. Police reports from any country you lived in;
- C. Complete court records regarding any
