

Attachment G Radiological Event Messages for Public Health Workers

E-mail Reminder for Survey of Radiological Messages
Among Public Health Workers

I recently invited you to participate in the email survey from The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the National Public Health Information Coalition gathering opinions of public health workers regarding a set of messages about radiological emergencies through a survey of public health workers in six states.

Please complete the survey as soon as possible to include your opinions in this important evaluation. Your feedback is important to us and will be used to evaluate essential messages regarding a radiological emergency. We invite you to complete the survey online at:
