National Children's Study Infant 3-Day Food Checklist

6, 12, and 18 Months

Instructions!

This booklet contains 3 Food Checklists and Instructions.

Fill out one Food Checklist throughout the day on the next:

[PUT LABEL HERE WITH DAYS]
[EITHER TH, F, SA OR SU, M, TU]

Each Food Checklist asks about some (but NOT all) of the foods your baby eats.

Each Food Checklist asks about how many different times your baby eats a food each day (NOT how many pieces or servings your baby eats each time).

Complete the Checklist each day by checking a box each time your baby eats a food on that day.

If your baby is regularly cared for by someone else, it is very important that you ask your child-care provider to fill out the Checklist while caring for your baby.

DRAFT ONLY - NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION

Use only a black ball-point pen (not red ink or felt tip) to mark your foods. If you make a mistake, cross out the incorrect answer.

How to Record Foods

Check (✓) a box for every food your baby eats at a different meal or snack.

Example:

My baby drank a bottle of formula made from cow's milk for breakfast, half a bottle for a mid-morning snack, a bottle for lunch, half of a small bottle in the afternoon, formula from a cup at dinner and a bottle at night.

Cow's milk formula

Do NOT count the number of pieces or servings of the same food your baby eats at a meal or snack.

Example:

My baby ate two animal crackers for a snack.

Animal crackers

Record pureed or chopped baby food you make or commercial baby food you buy at the store by checking the kind of food your baby ate.

Example:

My baby ate one half jar of pureed carrots at lunch and the rest of the jar at dinner.

Carrots

Record commercial baby food combination dinners, such as a Turkey and Rice Dinner or a Spaghetti Dinner, as a combination dinner under Meat, Fish, Eggs and Other Main Dishes.

Example:

My baby ate a half jar of vegetable stew for babies at lunch and another half jar for dinner.

Combination dinners (commercial baby food)

Record mixtures (casseroles, pasta, and beans and rice dishes) by checking each food in the mixture.

Example:

My baby ate a few spoonfuls of macaroni and cheese for dinner.
